Imperial Flour.

READ what the leading Commercial paper of America recently had to say about Duluth flour:

"Flour was dull and unsettled on spring patents, as the Duluth mills are making the market for Minneapolis not only, but getting the trade, as they are able at that point to get better wheat than Minneapolis at less cost, while not making such a large percentage of patents as Minneapolis and hence a better and stronger flour, which is taking the place of the Minneapolis brands of older reputation at less prices." Twenty-Six Lives Lost By the Wrecking of a British Bark On the Coast.

Captain and Six of the Crew Were Ill and This Made the Vessel Short Handed.

Some of Those on Board Tried to Escape on Planks or Spars But Perished.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Twenty-six lives have been lost by the wrecking of the British bark Port Varock, Capt. Forbes, from Santa Rosalia July 4 for Antwerp, which some days ago put into Brandon bay, county Kerry, Ireland, in a disabled condition, and which yesterday, during a gale, dragged her anchor and went ashore. A very heavy sea was running in the bay and when the bark struck the surf made a clean breach over her.

It was reported that the captain and six of the crew were ill and this made the crew short handed. Nineteen men, however, were fit for duty, and some surprise is expressed among seafaring men that apparently no attempt was made to claw off shore when it was seen that the vessel would not hold. At any rate the vessel was helpless and took ground on a sandy bottom over six miles from where she had been anchored.

The bark struck almost broadside on the surf and pounded her with terrific violence. As the tide rose, the surf became stronger and soon the sea was sweeping over the decks of the bark. Her hatches were evidently battened down and the companion ways closed, for there were no signs of her filling. It was impossible, owing to the position of the stranded vessel, for any assistance to reach her, and in a short time she began to break up.

First her three masts went by the board, and the wreckage floating along-side caused the hull to keel over to a sharp angle, thus exposing the stern to the sea, which was growing stronger and stronger. Soon butts and scuppers on the weather side began to open and in a short time the vessel began to break up. Some of those on board the bark attempted to reach shore by means of planks or spars, but they were swept off the sea that was growing stronger and stronger. Not a person on the bark was saved.

Minnesota Pensioners.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The following pensions to Minnesota people were granted today: August Miller, New Richmond; Gilliland, Newell; St. Paul; John B. Parvin, Monticello; Jesse D. Rees, Winona; Inga Lena Larson, Carver; Martha G. Granstrum, Minneapolis; Della E. Halbert, Laverne.

Moonlight to Get a Place.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Kansas Democrats are hopeful that the Bolivian mission will not escape them. It is said that Hon. Thomas Moonlight, whom Mr. Cleveland appointed governor of Wyoming, to break up her company. She returned to England in the hope that her health would be benefited, but her hopes were not realized.

Rosina Vokes Dead.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Rosina Vokes, the well-known English actress, died at Torquay, Devonshire, on Saturday. A few months ago she was compelled by ill health, while making a tour of the United States, to break up her company. She returned to England in the hope that her health would be benefited, but her hopes were not realized.

American Legation Entered.

ROME, Jan. 29.—Burglars last night forced an entrance into the American legation, No. 13 Via Nazionale, by breaking the locks. The thieves broke open the safe and the desks of the minister and consular general and then set fire to all the papers in the office. A number of the archives were completely destroyed and others partially burned.

Judge Ingram Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—John L. Ingram, popularly known among his circle of friends as "Judge" Ingram, died suddenly in the room of Congressman Jason Brown, of Indiana, at the Riggs house at 430 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was a clerk in the office of the first auditor of the treasury.

A St. Louis Fire.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.—At 3 a. m. fire broke out in the wholesale leather house of Otto Haters & Co., corner Fourth and Lucas streets. The entire second and third stories were gutted. The loss by fire and water is estimated at $75,000; insurance unknown.

A Bantam Fight.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Representatives of George Dixon and "Young" Grio, the two greatest featherweight pugilists in the world, have taken the initial steps toward arranging a match between their men for $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered by any club in the United States.

A Serious Loss.

AKRON, Ohio, Jan. 29.—The Hower & Co. plant of the American Cereal company in this city was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Loss $150,000; insurance $70,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The American Cereal company had recently secured a corner on buckwheat, and a large share of the visible supply in the country was ruined.

IRON JUNCTION JOTTINGS.

The Dance by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Employes.

IRON JUNCTION, Minn., Jan. 29.—[Special to The Herald.]—The dance held here Friday night at Skinner's hotel under the auspices of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern employes was largely attended by the residents of the three range towns. The railroad boys did everything in their power to make everyone have the best time of the season. Special trains ran from the different points to here and it was 5 o'clock before they started back for their respective points.

The round house caught fire Friday night, but the fire was discovered in time to prevent a serious loss. The roof was slightly damaged.

CAPTURED BY BRIGANDS.

A Mule Train of Silver Ore Seized by Bandits in Mexico.

DURANGO, Mex., Jan. 29.—The authorities here were notified yesterday of a desperate murder and robbery, committed about eighty-five miles west of here, the perpetrators being a band of brigands, led by the notorious outlaw, Francisco Kelsida.

A mule train, loaded with silver ore from the Santa Maria mines, was on its way to the reducing works, when the bandits made an attack upon the guards, killing the foreman, Joseph Villalaz, who attempted to offer resistance.

The other guards fled, leaving the burros with their precious cargoes in position of the bandits, who drove the animals to their rendezvous in the mountains. A force of troops will be sent in pursuit of the robbers.

ZELLA HAS RETURNED.

But Refuses to Discuss Her Suit Against George Gould.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Zella Nicolaus, who created a sensation a few weeks ago by bringing a suit against George J. Gould to recover $40,000, was sweeping over the check which she obtained from her illegally, and who sailed for Europe shortly afterward, returned yesterday in company with her husband, Al Kibban, of the French liner, La Bourgogne, from Havre.

Kubmann and Mrs. Nicolaus were met by a reporter at the French line steamer and asked what they were going to do about the suit against Mr. Gould. They refused to make any answer and were driven to the Hotel Imperial.

FROM MOUNTAIN IRON.

The New Road to Rainy Lake Is Nearing Completion.

MOUNTAIN IRON, Minn., Jan. 29.—[Special to The Herald.]—The new road to Rainy Lake is nearing completion and will be "the" route to the new Eldorado very soon.

Fifteen couples from here attended the dance given by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern employes at Iron Junction Friday evening.

A NEW PLANING MILL.

Hibbing & Trimble Proposing to Erect One at Hibbing.

HIBBING, Minn., Jan. 29.—[Special to The Herald.]—Hibbing & Trimble are contemplating erecting a planing mill here. As it is quite a necessity it would be a paying investment.

The Etta Powder company erected a powder house here last week, making the handling of this commodity considerably safer.

An Insurance Swindle.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 29.—The postoffice authorities Saturday caused the arrest of F. J. Drake, vice president and treasurer, and V. S. Jasper, secretary of the Crescent Insurance company, and F. C. Atherton, attorney for the Ohio Fire Lloyd company, on the charge of using the mails for a scheme to defraud. These companies reported a capital stock of over $100,000 each and wrote a large number of policies outside of the state. Investigation showed that neither had assets to exceed a few hundred dollars with which to pay losses. The prisoners were released in $1000 bail.

Corbett Speaks.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—At a testimonial benefit tendered to Billy Madden, the old time lightweight, at the Windsor theater last night Corbett appeared and was given an enthusiastic welcome. He made a short address, speaking as follows: "Thank you, gentlemen, for this royal welcome. I am glad to come down here for my old friend, Billy Madden's sake. You are undoubtedly glad to have the 'championship of the world in America and I shall do my best to keep it here.'"

German Silver Commission.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Count von Posadowsky, secretary of the imperial treasury, has been appointed to preside over the government committee which will take expert testimony on the silver question. He is known to have a fairly open mind in the matter of the money standards. Herr von Kautsky and Count von Mirbach, conspicuous Agrarians, and Dr. Arendt, a famous silver man, have been chosen to represent the cause of bimetallism.

A Treasurer Absconded.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 29.—John Franklin Moore, treasurer of Whitby township, is a fugitive from justice, having absconded to the United States with the municipal and private funds aggregating over $10,000. He was a leader in church affairs and no one dreamed of his delinquency. Moore left a wife and daughter without means of support.

An Engineer Killed.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 29.—Late last evening a wreck occurred on the St. Louis, Chicago & St. Paul railroad about three miles south of Curran, which resulted in the death of the engineer, William Deadman, of Alton.

Fatal Fight.

WAYNESVILLE, Mo., Jan. 29.—In a street fight yesterday, resulting from an old feud, James Vaughn and William Bates were shot by John Robinson and fatally injured.

THE RIOTOUS MINERS.

Deputies Guarding Mines in Allegheny County, Pa., and Several Have Started With Non-Union Men.

A Mass Meeting of the Striking Miners to Be Held at Mansfield This Afternoon.

Late Reports Say That Another Outbreak Has Occurred at the Ridgeway Mines Near Mansfield.

MANSFIELD, Pa., Jan. 29.—Reports by telegraph from the Bridgeville, Essen and the leading mines show that all is quiet. There are the places where trouble was most feared last night and at which special forces of deputies were stationed. None of the alleged threats of the rioters were attempted at these points, and if there had been the perfect organization of deputies, reinforced by the citizens' guard, would have made short work of the horde. Deputies are still guarding the various mines, but no trouble is expected today. Special precautions were taken this morning while the miners were assembling for work lest they be attacked by the rioters.

Sheriff Richards has started for Bridgeville, where he will serve a number of warrants for the arrest of rioters. Armstrong's Woodville mine started at 4 o'clock this morning with non-union men under the protection of deputy sheriffs. An attempt will be made to start other mines during the day.

A mass meeting of the striking miners will be held at Mansfield this afternoon, the object of which is not yet known. A large force of deputies will also attend the meeting, prepared to suppress any lawlessness in its inception.

Sheriff Cherry, of Washington county, is at Bridgeville with a detachment of deputies, and is now in communication with Deputy Lowry, who is in charge of the Allegheny county deputies, harmonizing the movements of the forces of the two counties. It is reported that the 4500 strikers on the Montour are assembling at Imperial and will march across the county six miles to attend the mass meeting at Mansfield.

All of these men are said to be foreigners, who are rallying to the aid of the riotous element in the Mansfield valley. The report, as yet, lacks confirmation. Deputy Sheriff Pasco and Young, with their men, went to the mine early this morning and effected the arrest of twenty-two participants in Saturday's riots. Only one of the men offered resistance.

Mansfield is rapidly filling up with foreigners of all types and nationalities, many of whom wear mud-soiled aprons, their necks and give other manifestations of anarchism.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—1:30 a. m.—A telephone message from Mansfield said that an outbreak had occurred at another point near the railroad between Mansfield and Bridgeville. A special train is waiting at Mansfield to convey the deputy sheriffs to the scene of the disturbance. The deputies are being assembled as rapidly as possible.

Later—the trouble is now said to be at the Ridgeway mines on Miller's Run, six miles from Mansfield.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS TODAY.

The House in Committee on the Income Tax Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—In the house this morning Mr. Burrows asked that unanimous consent be given members who had amendments which they desired to offer to the tariff bill and which they had no opportunity to offer, to print them in the record. Mr. McMillin objected, saying that if the amendments could not be offered the house, they should not encumber the record. Mr. Burrows said the privilege had been extended to members of the Fifty-first congress.

Chairman McCreary presented the report of the foreign affairs committee on the Hawaiian resolution. The minority will have until Thursday to present their views.

At 1:15 the house went into committee of the whole on the income tax bill. Mr. McMillin offered it as an amendment to the tariff bill and the amendment was read in full.

Mr. McMillin had scarcely uttered a dozen words in his speech in support of the tariff bill and the amendment was interrupted by Mr. Tracy, Dem. of New York, who stated that he desired to reserve a point of order against it. The chairman and the Democratic members held that a point of order could not be reserved in this case and as Mr. Tracy did not state his point of order, the chairman directed Mr. McMillin to continue.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A resolution was offered by Mr. Stewart declaring it to be the sense of the senate that the secretary of the treasury has no legal authority to issue and sell bonds as proposed. He gave notice that he would ask action on his resolution tomorrow.

The Hawaiian resolutions were then taken up and Mr. Teller, (Rep., Cal.), addressed the senate. The resolutions were then placed on the calendar.

The bill to repeal the federal election laws was taken up and Mr. Chandler continued his speech against it.

Never Bought a Ticket.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 29.—J. N. Reece, state adjutant general under the last administration, today instructed his attorney to commence suit for damages for $25,000 against the Grand Lottery company of New Orleans, La., for defamation of character. Reece says that the official circular report of the last drawing of the lottery contained his name as one of the holders of one of the principal prizes. He says he never bought a lottery ticket in his life. The action is to be begun in the federal court.

AN INJUNCTION ASKED.

Bill in Equity Restraining Secretary Carlisle from Issuing Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—General Master Workman Sovereign and Thomas B. McGuire, of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, at 10 o'clock this morning by their attorneys, C. C. Cole, of Des Moines, Iowa, Senator Allen, of Nebraska, and J. Warner Mills, of Denver, appeared before Judge Cox, of the supreme court of the district of Columbia, and made application to file a bill in equity praying that an injunction issue restraining John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, from issuing and selling $50,000,000 in government bonds, as he has announced his purpose of doing.

After counsel had made their arguments Judge Cox said his decision would be made tomorrow or Wednesday.

IRON ORE DUTY TO STICK.

Senator Washburn is Confident That the Senate Will Defeat the Free Iron Ore Schedule.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—[Special to The Herald.]—Senator Washburn announced to The Herald correspondent today that he would oppose the free iron schedule in the Wilson bill when that measure comes to the senate from the house.

"It is nothing but my duty to my constituents to do so," he added. "It would be a shame to have iron ore go on the free list. It would not only injure Northern Minnesota and the entire state but people of the adjoining states as well. I think we will be able to easily defeat this schedule when it is taken up for final settlement in the senate. The fact is I have no doubt in this matter."

This is the way all the Northwestern senators talk today.

BALFOUR HAS NO MONEY.

The Head of the Liberator Building Society Frauds Captured.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A dispatch from the British consul at Buenos Ayres states that the delivery by the Argentine authorities of James Spencer Balfour, who is wanted in England to answer for his connection with the Liberator Building society frauds, has been postponed until the attorney general decides as to the legal procedure.

The consul affirms that, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, Balfour has no money with which to answer the requisition.

PANICS IN TWO CHURCHES.

Hoodlums Raised a Cry of Fire and Panics Resulted.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Jan. 29.—A fire alarm was turned in for a burning chimney last night and hoodlums raised a cry of fire in the Baptist and Methodist churches, which were packed. Panics resulted, although the ministers did their best to quiet the people.

One man attempted to shut the door of the Baptist church and was carried bodily to the street. The people piled over each other and children and old people were trampled under the feet of the crowd. Several people were badly injured and bruised but none fatally.

Fixed Colonization Plan.

PARIS, Jan. 29.—The Liberte publishes a letter from a soldier of a Soudanese contingent who intimates, contrary to the official announcement, that the French occupation of Timbuctoo is part of a fixed colonization plan, of which the ministers are fully informed. An official dispatch describes an attack made by Touaregs on Marine Ensign Aubert's party, between Agbra and Timbuctoo, on Dec. 28. Aubert, the second mate, and twenty-eight native allies were killed.

Judge Stewart Dead.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 29.—Judge John D. Stewart, ex-congressman from this district, died last night at his home in Griffin. He was 60 years of age. Judge Stewart had been in poor health for a long time previous to his death. He leaves quite a large estate. His last political campaign was four years ago against L. F. Livingston, the present representative in congress from this district.

Killed by Outlaws.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 29.—Frank Howell, a ranchman of Pecos county, arrived here yesterday bringing news of the killing of a young American named Henry W. Carey by a band of Mexican outlaws, supposed to be remnants of Santa Perez's revolutionary forces. Mr. Carey came to Southwest Texas a few months ago from Chattanooga, Tenn.

Murdered in His Store.

PITTSBURGH, Kas., Jan. 29.—William M. Chapman, one of the best known citizens of this city, was foully murdered in his store last night. The discovery was made by his wife who went to the store about 7 o'clock to call her husband. The body was horribly mutilated with a knife. Robbers did the work.

Maj. Kleutsch Dead.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—Maj. John D. Kleutsch, editor of the Lincoln Free Press, the leading German publication of the state, died here yesterday morning, aged 61, of paralysis of the brain. He had an extended acquaintance in this state as well as Chicago and New York.

Action Postponed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Peckham nomination has been postponed by the senate judiciary committee for one week. It appears that the friends of Mr. Peckham said they were not ready to take action at this meeting.

A St. Paul Protest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—[Special to The Herald.]—Senator Washburn today presented the protest of the St. Paul chamber of commerce against the free iron ore and free lumber schedules of the Wilson bill.

A WEARY AND WICKED WORLD!

All of us are desperately wicked, and some of us more so. Not necessary to mention names. YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE, if we don't. It wasn't for the few pleasures capable of being grasped occasionally, this world would indeed be a "vale of tears." But when our friends and patrons can avail themselves of a chance like what we offer for the next three days occasionally, prospects become slightly more pleasing. The prospects are in our favor for

WHEAT FIRM AND HIGHER.

There was Active Trading and Prices Advanced a Cent.

The market opened firm this morning at a higher than Saturday's close for wheat to arrive and higher for May and July. There was a good demand for wheat and there was a considerable amount of trading in the afternoon at an advance of 1c for May and the close was strong and firm at last night's closing. The market was quiet for wheat to arrive which was 1c higher. The strength of today's market was due to higher cables, a good demand and small offerings in the market.

Following were the closing prices:

SHOT AND SHELL

The Brazilian Insurgent Fleet at Rio Fired Upon the American Bark Good News Yesterday.

Admiral Bonham Had Stationed the American Warship Detroit to Protect the American Merchant Vessels.

The Detroit Promptly Opened Fire Upon the Insurgent Warship Guanabara and the Latter Retired.

A Small Shell Was Then Sent Into the Guanabara's Stern Post and Firing Ceased.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 30.—The American bark Julia Kollias, Capt. Kiehne, from Baltimore and the American schooner Millie J. H., Captain Suttis, from New York, were fired on by the insurgents during a night tour last week. Admiral Saldanha da Gama, the commander of the insurgent forces here visited Rear Admiral Bonham, commander of the American squadron and was emphatically told that the insurgents must at once abandon the idea that they could with impunity fire upon American vessels.

Admiral Bonham asserted that American ships would be protected by his fleet, no matter what part of the harbor they might happen to be. Admiral da Gama protested against this decision, but finally apparently yielded the point. On Saturday the American bark Amy, Capt. Blackford, from Baltimore, the American bark Good News, Capt. Myrick, also from Baltimore, and the Julia Kollias, gave notice that they were going to the Caudre piers. Admiral da Gama learned of this and yesterday he notified Admiral Bonham that if the vessels attempted to proceed to the place where the Americans wanted to and that he would send the Detroit to protect them. If the Detroit could not furnish sufficient protection every vessel of the American squadron would be employed in the work of protection. Early yesterday morning five insurgent ships and armed merchantmen proceeded to the place where the Americans were lying at anchor and hovered about them, apparently waiting for them to get under way. When they would fire upon them. There was great activity displayed on board the American warships, and soon the sharp tones of the heavy guns could be heard. A shot from the crews to clear the ships for action.

At 5 o'clock the Detroit hoisted her anchor, and with a great steam, turned out in the insurgent warship Trajano and Guanabara, both of which were lying close to the Good News. As the Detroit took up her position a shot from the Guanabara was fired at the Good News.

The Detroit at once fired a six-pound shot across the bow of the Guanabara, whereupon the latter vessel replied with what is supposed to have been a blank cartridge. The Detroit then turned out of her guns upon the Guanabara and sent a small shell into her stern post, and was upon the point of delivering a broadside at the insurgent ship when the Guanabara signalled that she would stop firing.

In the meantime an American citizen, G. M. Kolling, who has been acting as agent of Admiral da Gama in the arbitration negotiations, had visited all three of the American merchantmen, and offered to have them towed at the expense of the insurgents if they would not go to the piers. This the captains of the merchantmen agreed to. At the present time the leading members of the committee believe that the house will not agree to any bill increasing the naval establishment, in matter how small the appropriation may be, and for that reason it is unlikely that any such measure will be reported.

SNOW IN NEW YORK.

Heaviest Snow and Wind Storm of the Season.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Reports from the western and northern sections of the state show that the heaviest snow and wind storm of the season prevailed during the night and this morning. Snow fell in varying depths from three feet at Ogdensburg to one foot at Buffalo and Auburn.

Scranton, Pa., reports a fierce "norther" accompanied by snow and all sections of New England report high winds and heavy falls of snow. Railroad, telegraphic and telephone communication is seriously crippled in all directions.

A Rotten Concern.
LONDON, Jan. 30.—An inquiry has been begun in the bankruptcy court into the affairs of the South American and Mexican corporation, which was formed in June, 1890, with a capital of $1,000,000. Among the witnesses examined during the investigation will be Lord Sumner and four members of the firm of Murriets & Co. The liabilities of the concern amount to $2,774,466. The assets show a deficiency of $1,853,316.

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

A Long Cipher Message Received from Admiral Bonham.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The news from Rio concerning the reported action of Rear Admiral Bonham in conveying an American merchantman past the guns of the insurgent fleet, was received with credence, although no official confirmation of the story could be obtained at the state department. It was intimated that Admiral Bonham had previously informed this government that he intended to do what it is now said he has done.

Secretary Gresham would say nothing further than that he had no Brazilian news. Secretary Herbert said he did not care to say anything. Commodore Ramsay, chief of the navigation bureau, read the Rio story carefully and then enclosed it in an envelope and sent it to Secretary Herbert at the regular cabinet meeting. The commodore declined to talk about the matter.

Despite the secretiveness, however, there is very good reason for believing that something of great importance has come from Admiral Bonham. Whether it bears on the story of his reported conveyance of an American ship past Mello's guns cannot be stated with positiveness, but the inference is that it does.

It is likely that some official statement will be given to the press after the cabinet meeting which will end about 2 o'clock. It is definitely known that a long dispatch was received from Admiral Bonham late last night and that the translators did not finish deciphering it until 1 o'clock this morning. At 3 o'clock copies of the dispatch were carried to both Secretaries Gresham and Herbert.

The important news contained in Admiral Bonham's dispatch to Secretary Herbert is to the following effect: It seems that Admiral Bonham lost patience with the insurgent forces for their careless firing in the harbor of Rio. When Admiral da Gama persisted in this needless course, Admiral Bonham yesterday cleared his decks for action. Admiral da Gama did not choose to take the hint whereupon Admiral Bonham sent several shots across the bows of da Gama's flagship.

It is understood that this action was salutary and that the matter ended at that point. It is believed at the state department that da Gama would not willingly court an engagement with the American naval forces.

This, in brief, is the dispatch, so it is said. The complications that may follow are regarded as likely to be serious. Our policy has been to purchase the torpedo boat Destroyer, which was taken from New York to Brazil in tow. It is said the vessel is leaky. In addition her propeller is broken. On the voyage from New York she nearly foundered.

IS HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Anti-Scalper Law Declared Invalid by Judge Willis.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 30.—The renowned anti-scalper law was declared yesterday to be unconstitutional by Judge Willis in the district court.

The court held that the act violates the constitution, which gives a special class for ticket selling licenses; that such law could only be valid as an exercise of the police power, but that the police power does not extend to property as required by this act; that the sale of tickets is per se innocent; that the legislation is a species of favoritism repugnant to the constitution; that the provision allowing transportation companies to issue licenses to their own agents is an unconstitutional delegation of licensing power, and that the entire act is controlled by its unconstitutional provisions.

The case will go to the supreme court.

NO NEW SHIPS LIKELY.

The House Would Not Grant Any Appropriation at Present.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—There is little probability that the house naval committee will report an appropriation for new ships at this session. The committee have had all the heads of the bureau of construction, the commandant of marines and the head of the naval observatory, examining them as to the sums necessary for their respective needs.

When this examination shall have finished, the question of new ships will come up for consideration. At the present time the leading members of the committee believe that the house will not agree to any bill increasing the naval establishment, in matter how small the appropriation may be, and for that reason it is unlikely that any such measure will be reported.

CONSPIRACY TO MURDER.

SOFIA, Jan. 30.—Lieut. Luca Ivanoff and his brother, Stojan, were today convicted of conspiring to murder Prince Ferdinand, prince of Bulgaria, and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment and Stojan to three years. It was the intention of the conspirators to assassinate Prince Ferdinand the day before the arrival here of the remains of Count Hattenau, formerly Prince Alexander and once ruler of Bulgaria.

THEY WEPT BITTERLY.

Twenty-One Rioters in the Allegheny Coal Fields Held for Trial but Protested Innocence.

They Raved Wildly When Sent to Their Cells, Whence They Will Go to Jail.

Destitution Great and the Families of Those Arrested Will Suffer—All Trouble Probably Ended.

MANSFIELD, Pa., Jan. 30.—Squire McMillan gave the twenty-five rioters who are confined in the Mansfield jail a preliminary hearing at 9 o'clock this morning. W. J. Steer and Officer Foster entered the informations. Four of the prisoners were discharged and twenty-one were held. Two of the number held were placed under arrest this morning.

Every one of the prisoners protested that they were entirely innocent of the charges brought against them. Some of the prisoners wept bitterly and raved wildly when they were remanded to their cells, from which they will be sent to the county jail.

The destitution throughout the district is great and the families of those under arrest will be greater sufferers. The sudden and severe change in the weather is most severe upon the destitute, many of whom are but lightly clad. They are true to their trust, however, deriving what little comfort they can from the heat of the puny bonfires, around which they shiver. This morning a driving snowstorm is in progress, adding greatly to the discomfort of all who are exposed.

At 9 o'clock this morning Deputy Sheriff Lowry returned to this place after a tour of the Toms Run district. He reports everything quiet in that locality this morning, with no indications of immediate trouble. The Povers, Wyck and Putzberg Fuel company resumed operations this morning with their mines under the guard of the deputies.

This morning a body of Francis Steppick, who met his death while with the mob that attacked Beading's tipple, was brought from Federal to Mansfield for interment. A German society accompanied the body. There was no demonstration.

The reports received at the sheriff's headquarters at Mansfield this morning are reassuring. Quiet reigned throughout the night, although many suspicious looking characters were prowling around. The authorities feel confident that the worst is over and that little, if any, further trouble will be created by the mob. The report, which apparently has been thoroughly covered, orders have been issued to the deputies to continue making arrests and many warrants have been issued.

Later—At 11 o'clock, a report arrives that a strike has been declared at the Moon Run mines, known as the N. F. Sabard mines. The report states that 700 men have left the works declaring they will not continue work at the 65 cent rate. They want 70 cents.

MORE TROUBLE IMPOSSIBLE.

Deputies Returning to Pittsburgh Consider the Outbreak Ended.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Twenty-four of the rioting miners were brought from Mansfield this morning by the deputy sheriffs and lodged in the county jail. They are vicious and repulsive in appearance. Fifteen others now in the Mansfield jail will be given a hearing this afternoon.

The deputies who accompanied the prisoners state that there is much destitution and suffering among the miners' families in the Mansfield valley and that immediate steps for their support will have to be taken.

The deputies agree in the belief that another outbreak among the miners is now improbable. They state that several mines in the district are in operation today and that repairs are in progress at those places damaged or destroyed by the raiding rioters on Saturday. While the officials are confident that the rioters will not renew hostilities, deputies are sufficient numbers to protect the coal interests, will be continued on guard for some time.

The riotous tour of the rioters means a further delay in the resumption of many mines, so that the 3000 or more men who calculated on resuming work this week will do not know the facts in time to protect the coal interests, will be continued on guard for some time.

CHICAGO GAS TRUST.

Attorney General Maloney Asked to Begin Suit Against the Companies.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Attorney General Maloney said this afternoon that a petition had been presented to him by citizens of Chicago asking him to begin proceedings against the gas companies on the ground that they are a trust and are doing an illegal business, but it did not follow by any means that such a suit would be instituted.

"There is no truth in the report that I have filed an information against the companies," said he, "nor is there any foundation for the report that I intend to do so. Whether I will do so or not is entirely another matter. At present I say that I do not know the facts in the case and before taking any steps in the matter I shall investigate it thoroughly."

Taken to the Pest House.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Six cases of smallpox were taken out of the tenement house at 623 West Seventeenth street by the health officers today. The sufferers were removed to the pest house and the building quarantined until it can be thoroughly fumigated.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS TODAY.

The Debate on the Income Tax Bill Proceeding in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The house very promptly went into committee of the whole to consider the tariff bill this morning, on motion of Mr. Richardson of Tennessee, having dispensed with the call of committees for reports.

The consideration of the income tax bill was resumed and Mr. Covert (Dem., of New York) took up the thread of his argument against it. He referred to Mr. McMillin's eloquent tribute to the flag in his peroration yesterday, but he (Mr. Covert) wanted to see that flag floating over a united country, in which there should be no class distinctions such as would be created by this bill.

Mr. Cox followed in defence of the income tax.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Stewart resolution condemning the treasury bond policy being up in the senate today, after a speech by Mr. Stewart, Mr. Sherman made a strong speech in support of the secretary's power and duty to issue and sell bonds. He expressed his regret that anybody should be found now to question that authority. It was almost unpatriotic to do so, at a time when the revenues of the government were insufficient to meet the expenditures.

Without regard to party feeling, he felt like standing up for the honor of the country and for the power of the secretary. The power, he contended, was given in the strongest, clearest, most direct language that could be used, and it had stood unchallenged and uncontradicted from that day until a few days since, when the senator from Nebraska (Mr. Allen) offered a resolution denying the authority of the secretary of the treasury. Mr. Sherman complained that that had been done at the very time when the bidders were preparing their bids.

In the course of Mr. Sherman's remarks he said that he did not believe it was the duty of the secretary of the treasury or that it was in his power to apply the money received from the sale of bonds to any other purpose than a redemption of legal tender notes. He had no right to apply it to current expenses. There was no authority of law for that.

Therefore, his friends on the other side would have to supply the deficiency in some other way than by tampering with the bond obtained from bonds. That was perfectly clear, and there was no partisanship about it. The obligations resting on the government were not to be diminished the revenues (as they were proposing to do by a new tariff measure) without providing some means of meeting the deficiency.

TO FORFEIT ITS FRANCHISES.

The Soo Road to be Sued by the State of Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—Attorney General O'Connor in the supreme court this morning asked that he be granted leave to institute an action in this court against the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway company to have all its franchises declared forfeited.

That corporation owes the state of Wisconsin a balance of $23,918.05 taxes which fell due Aug. 10 last. It refuses to pay. The court granted leave to the state. The company's road runs through the northern half of the state between Sault Ste. Marie and Minneapolis, 250 miles.

KILLED BY A NEGRO.

An Illicit Whisky Peddler Killed in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 30.—Near Reelfoot Lake yesterday evening Samuel Williamson, a negro, on entering his house, found a man named Rhodes, who claimed to be a revenue officer, there. Rhodes ordered Williamson to leave, and upon the latter refusing to do so, Rhodes attempted to draw a pistol, whereupon Williamson struck him with a large stick, killing him almost instantly. Williamson was arrested but was discharged, having committed the deed in self defense. Later it was discovered that Rhodes was an illicit whisky peddler.

APPLICATION DENIED.

Judge Cox Declined to Issue an Injunction to Restrict Secretary Carlisle from Issuing Bonds.

Principal Ground of His Decision that the Applicants Had no Proper Standing in Court.

The Secretary Gratified at the Decision, Which Was What He Expected Would Be Given.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Judge Cox this morning denied the application of the Knights of Labor for an injunction to restrain Secretary Carlisle from issuing bonds. The principal ground of his decision was that the applicants had no proper standing in court.

Secretary Carlisle returned from New York last night and was at the treasury shortly after 9 o'clock. About 10 o'clock United States Marshal Wilson, of the District of Columbia, appeared at the treasury and being shown into the secretary's room, armed with the subpoena issued by the supreme court of the District of Columbia on request of the Knights of Labor, served it on the secretary. Mr. Carlisle accepted the process, and after a few minutes spent in friendly chat, Marshal Wilson retired and Secretary Carlisle busied himself in awaiting the arrival of the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Carlisle, who was expected to arrive at the treasury at 11 o'clock.

He had no opinion to express on the subject but was of course gratified at the view taken by the court. He had not expected a decision today, but never entertained any doubt about the final result. Secretary Carlisle politely but positively declined to discuss his meeting with the New York bankers. It can be stated, however, that the statement attributed to him that he would sell $75,000,000 if they were offered a new take. He will sell $50,000,000, the amount specified in the original circular, and no more under that call.

From the papers taken over to the cabinet meeting by Secretary Carlisle, no doubt remains but that the financial situation formed a prominent feature of today's cabinet discussion.

CONDITION NOT SERIOUS.

Devery, Who Was Shot by an Express Guard, Resting Easy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Thomas A. Devery, the Troy, N. Y., bridge builder who was shot by Edward Mills, a guard on the United States Express company's car at the Baltimore & Ohio depot Sunday night, is resting easy at the emergency hospital here and the physicians say that his condition is not now serious. Devery adheres to his original statement that he was not one of the men who attempted to board the car, and that all he knew of it was when he was shot. He does not talk unless questioned, and his answers are always substantially the same.

The superintendent of the express company will bring Mills, the guard, here today and will have action there to be taken will then be decided upon.

The Sugar Trust War.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Judge Butler, in the United States circuit court, decided in favor of the sugar trust, in the suit brought by the government to have set aside as illegal the taking of the Philadelphia refineries into the trust. The bill of complaint was dismissed.

SILK MILL RESUMED.

PATERSON, N. J., Jan. 30.—The Dolphin Silk mill resumed operations yesterday with 500 annuals.

The firemen's annual ball will be held at the Hotel St. Louis on Feb. 1. The receipts from the ball will be donated to the Ladies' Relief society.

STRICKEN DEAD.

TRUSTWORTHY STATEMENTS.

A recent New York dispatch reads: "James C. H. is a fine looking and apparently healthy man, was observed to stagger while walking on Fifth Avenue this afternoon, and after taking one or two uncertain steps fell to the sidewalk. When picked up he was dead. A physician examined the body and pronounced heart disease the cause of death. A peculiarly fatal case of this kind is that Mr. H. was on his way to Maine, to settle in the home of his wife, had passed the previous ten years in the western mining country, and had amassed a fortune. IF YOU have any of the symptoms given in the following testimonials you should lose no time in seeking relief."

From John L. Roberts, Birmingham, Pa.: "I have suffered with palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and another spells, pain in shoulders, side and arms for over forty years. For twelve years have been treated without avail by prominent physicians in my neighborhood and in New York. Growing constantly worse, smothering spells followed one another, so my life was often in danger and I needed constant care. As my son had been cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, he sent me three bottles. The first dose gave me instant relief. Before using the last bottle I was completely cured. Although seventy-five years old I feel twenty years younger. I claim my cure to be almost a miracle."

Here is a letter from Mrs. John Kolger, of Cleveland, O.: "I had been troubled with my heart and stomach for years, but for sixteen months had been confined to my bed. I had four of the best doctors in the city, but none of them could benefit the weakness of my heart. I also had dropsy and rheumatism. I never took medicine that relieved me as once as Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure does. I am much stronger. My appetite is splendid. I gain strength with every bottle. I have gained more in six weeks from your treatment than in sixteen months from all the doctors."

"Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure for the Heart is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists. It is safe, effective, agreeable, and does cure." Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

IOWA LIQUOR LEGISLATION.

Bills Favored by the Republicans and Democrats.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 30.—The Democrats of the house and senate of the Iowa legislature met in joint caucus last night and decided to support a liquor bill modeled after the Schmidt municipal option, with license, which received the Democratic endorsement two years ago.

The only change will consist in reducing the amount of the license fee to be paid into the county treasury from $500 to $250. The minimum license will remain at $500. The Democrats do not expect any Republican support for their bill and hence cannot pass it.

The Republican majority of the senate committee last night decided to recommend for passage the Harsh mulct tax bill. The house committee met but did not take final action. It is expected to report favorably on the Funk mulct tax bill. Both bills allow city councils to impose mulct taxes upon illegal sellers of liquors in addition to the penalties prescribed by the prohibitory law. They differ, in that under the Harsh bill payment of the monthly mulct operates as a bar to proceedings against the liquor seller for thirty days, while the Funk bill affords no such protection to those who are mulcted.

THINK BONILLA WILL WIN.

The Revolution in Honduras is Becoming Lively.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 30.—Andrés Amaya and Santiago de Vincent, officeholders in San Salvador, reached the city last night from Honduras on board the steamship Breakwater. On Jan. 3 they narrowly escaped assassination at the hands of a corporal guard of President Ezeta's soldiers, while at their home in the capital city.

They made their way to Honduras on horseback and came through to the coast at Puerto Cortes. In speaking of the revolution in Honduras, they stated that it looks very much as though Bonilla would triumph. About 500 men in Olanchito have turned against Vasquez and are now siding with Bonilla, and the city is now under the orders of Bonilla.

Vasquez at the time of their departure from Tegucigalpa with a large army. Bonilla with a much larger force was surrounding the city and was preparing to make an attack on it. Bonilla sent word to Vasquez that if he (Bonilla) captured the city he would have Vasquez shot. Vasquez shot back word that he would return the compliment should he be victorious.

Vasquez has placed about 300 men at Puerto Cortes, Truzil and Ceiba to protect the sea coast from any invasion. It is expected daily now that Guatemala will take a good step forward.

A GOOD STEP FORWARD.

Action to Turn the Ohio Canals Into Electric Waterways.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—A special to the Tribune from Columbus, Ohio, says the initiative step looking to the conversion of the Ohio canals into electric waterways was taken yesterday in the general assembly. Mr. Harshbarger offered a resolution providing that a committee consisting of the members of the house be appointed to ascertain the approximate cost per mile of waterway of an electric plant of sufficient power and extent to propel canal boats when equipped with the proper electric appliances. The plan proposed is to be modeled after the recent experiments on the Erie canal near Rochester, N. Y.

TWO PARIS GREEN.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—George Helche died yesterday after a night of suffering from the effects of a quantity of Paris green, taken with a suicidal intent. At 5 o'clock Sunday evening George Helche entered his father's room very drunk. He took the poison from a drawer and poured it into a glass of liquor which he immediately swallowed before his aged parent could prevent. He was 28 years old.

FIRE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Fire last night in the 5-story building at 357 and 359 Washington avenue, caused an aggregate loss of $35,000 which is covered by insurance. Four firms occupied the structure, the Miller Carriage company, Chicago Fridge works, D. C. Heath publishing company, and Jinn Publishing company. The building belonged to the Irwin estate and suffered $10,000 damage.

BOTH WERE KILLED.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 30.—John B. Johnson and his son George became involved in a drunken quarrel Sunday in which revolvers were used. Both received injuries from which they died within a few minutes. The family was at church except a 10-year-old son, who witnessed the fight.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

TELEPHON, Ohio, Jan. 30.—Fred J. Sharp shot and fatally wounded Miss Kittie Klees at 5 o'clock last evening and then turned the revolver to his head and blew out his brains. They were engaged to be married, but she objected to his waywardness and broke with him a week ago.

SNAILPOX IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Snailpox is still raging in this city and the health authorities are alarmed at the outbreak of the contagion, which is not confined to any one quarter of the metropolis. A number of new cases were reported at sanitary headquarters yesterday.

A WIDOW SHOT DEAD.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Bertha Vundt, a young widow, was yesterday shot and killed at her home, 821 Madison street, by Charles Dreher, a rejected suitor. Dreher then shot himself, inflicting a serious wound.

STEEL WORKS START UP.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—The Spang Steel and Iron company started up yesterday with a full force and sufficient orders for a steady run of several weeks. Two hundred and fifty men are employed.

WOOLLEN MILL OPENED.

SAXONVILLE, Mass., Jan. 30.—The Saxonville woolen mill, which closed for an indefinite period in December, throwing about 250 operators out of employment, started up again yesterday morning.

Hood's sarsaparilla, the king of medicines, conquers scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism and all other blood diseases. Hood's and only Hood's.

BAD WHISKY'S RESULT.

Three Men Killed and Two Wounded During a Melee at a Country Dance in Arkansas.

Women Screamed and Fainted, but the Men Fought On, Until Cooler Heads Restored Harmony.

GURDON, Ark., Jan. 30.—Reliable information was yesterday received from Alpine, a small village in the northwestern portion of this (Clark) county, announcing the killing of three men and the wounding of two others during a melee at a country dance held at the house of James Forbes Saturday night.

The building where the dance was held was a spacious structure and was filled to its utmost capacity. All went well until the effects of an unusual amount of exceptionally bad whisky began to manifest itself among the male members, when suddenly affairs began to assume a different aspect. Frenzied by drink the men indulged first in profane language and insults, but later they came to blows among themselves, and as a final resort knives and revolvers were brought into action.

Then terror and absolute confusion reigned. Women screamed and fainted, but the men fought on. Lew Jones, Charles Ross and Sam Powell were killed, Jones and Powell having been shot, while Ross was stabbed through the heart with a butcher knife. Walker Jones and Bill Jones were both seriously if not fatally wounded. The latter was slashed fourteen times. Several others received slight cuts and bruises.

After a continuation of the free-for-all fight for some time a few of the cooler heads among those present succeeded in restoring harmony and dispersing the infuriated crowd.

SATOILI AND IRELAND.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The Sun's St. Louis special says: A St. Louis priest has received a letter from Rome, confirming the information printed on Saturday that Archbishop Satoli is to be relieved of his duties as apostolic delegate, and to be appointed archbishop of Bologna at the next consistory, and adding that Archbishop Ireland is to succeed Archbishop Satoli as apostolic delegate.

PANIC AMONG HOTEL GUESTS.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—At 1 o'clock this morning the Chicago Clothing Dryer was occupied by the Chicago Clothing Dryer and contained a large quantity of inflammable material, consequently the flames made rapid progress. The Grand Central hotel was only two doors south of the burning building and the panic was confined to the guests. The fire was confined to the building and the loss will not exceed $10,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 30.—Shortly after noon yesterday Mrs. Charles H. Gibbs, wife of the traveling auditor of the St. Paul & Duluth railroad, fell in front of the court house. She was taken to a neighboring drug store and died in a few minutes. The cause of death is thought to have been heart disease.

STORM IN NEW JERSEY.

POINT PLEASANT, N. J., Jan. 30.—A very heavy storm prevails along the New Jersey coast. Reports to Superintendent Hazen, of the life saving service, from the various stations between Cape May and Sandy Hook, however, show the coast to be clear of wrecks or fatalities of any kind.

REV. DR. SMITH DEAD.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 30.—C. D. Smith, D.D., L.L.D., died at his home near Franklin, N. C., this morning. He was for fifty years a preacher in the Holston conference, Methodist Episcopal church south. He was until recently assistant state mineralogist for years member of the state board of agriculture. He was 82 years of age.

AN ILL ADVISED STRIKE.

The President of the Railroad Miners' Union Interviewed.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—President Frye of the Railroad Miners' union said to a representative of the United Press yesterday: "It is not a question of union or non-union miners, and the attempt to lug it into the present difficulty cannot be done, in face of the fact that the late convention decided against a strike at present, which left the union and non-union miners at liberty to secure the best conditions possible, until such time in the near future they should be better prepared by a more perfect organization to enforce their demands."

The strike was a great surprise, and I doubt not had these men been in the organizations there would have been no difficulty there Saturday. Those of the miners who have been working at the late convention decided against a strike at present, which left the union and non-union miners at liberty to secure the best conditions possible, until such time in the near future they should be better prepared by a more perfect organization to enforce their demands."

An Italian interpreter informed President Frye that he had been endeavoring to hold his countrymen in check but said these men are desperate from hunger, that is what is the matter with them. There is very little work for the men and they average about 33 cents per day.

MURDERED WIFE AND CHILD.

BENSON, Mo., Jan. 30.—Charles Owens, living near Dichtstadt, is charged with murdering his wife and child and setting fire to the house Sunday. He was captured at Dichtstadt and is now under arrest. The wife had an arm and a leg burned off and the child was almost consumed. It seems that they were thrown on the bed, which was then saturated with coal oil and set on fire. Excitement among the countrymen means may be employed by the citizens.

THE CAMEROONS' MULLIN.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Mullin, from the Cameroons gave some additional details of the recent mutiny of the native police in that colony against the German authorities. The uprising is said to have been caused by the sub-governor's order that the wives of several native policemen be flogged. The order was rescinded, but the disturbances began. A police force broke into the government house and shot down a judge whom they mistook for the governor. The judge died within a few hours.

ONE HUNDRED HOUSES BURNED.

PORT AU PRINCE, Jan. 30.—Last Tuesday fire destroyed over 100 houses at Jarmette. The fire was caused by a gas leak, and the excitement and lawlessness, bands of roughs looting all unprotected houses and assaulting persons on the streets, reaching a point where they could not be controlled. The fire was thought to be the signal for a revolutionary uprising but prompt action on the part of the troops prevented any formidable outbreak.

WEST DULUTH ITEMS

The Military Companies Are Making Arrangements for the Grandest Ball Ever Given in West Duluth.

It is to be Given Next Monday Evening in Scott's Hall—Everything to be First Class.

Duncan, Brewer & Co.'s Mill Started Up Yesterday and is Running Smoothly—Electrical Works Shipments.

Companies G and H have about completed arrangements to give their military ball and the affair is already creating considerable interest among the young people of dancing propensities. The date has been set for Monday evening, Feb. 5, at Scott's hall. It is given out by the committee that the best music at the head of the lakes will be furnished and the event will be the grandest military ball yet given in West Duluth. The joint committee will hold a meeting tonight to perfect final arrangements. As the time set is the night before election candidates will all undoubtedly meet with an opportunity to purchase tickets and make themselves solid with the militia boys. That the ball will be a great success is assured by the personnel of the committee in charge.

Street Railway Transfers.
Chicago, Jan. 30.—A special train to the Tribune from Milwaukee says the formal transfer of the West Side street railway to the Milwaukee Street Railway company was made yesterday afternoon when the last payment of $325,000 was made to Washington Becker. The deal for the transfer of the road was made a year ago, but the financial crisis delayed the payment. Mr. Becker received for the road $1,000,000, the purchasers also assuming an indebtedness of about $800,000. The Milwaukee Street Railway company now controls all the street railways in Milwaukee.

To Resume Steeplechasing.
New York, Jan. 30.—The Concy Island jockey club has decided to resume steeplechasing at its spring meeting this year. Among the great events scheduled in this line of sport are the Concy Island grand national steeplechase, the Bay hurdle race, the hurdle selling stakes and the steeplechase selling stakes, for all of which good sized purses are offered. Great hope is entertained of again popularizing this class of racing.

New Postmasters.

Twinkling Stars Mean Bad Weather.
I have constantly observed at sea that steadily twinkling stars indicated calm, fair weather, and the more they twinkled the worse the weather was likely to be. The forecast given by this variation in scintillating was almost invariably correct in the high latitudes, though it failed sometimes in the tropics.—Nature.

Various experiments are being made with the new Swedish snuffless powder called anyrite and based upon the highly nitrated cellulose. Some of these tests show the article to give an initial velocity of more than 2,100 feet per second, giving out no flame and looking like common black powder.

WHEAT DECLINED TODAY.
The Early Market Firm. But the Close Dull and Heavy.

The wheat market opened easy this morning at 1 1/2 below last night's close for each wheat to arrive and futures. There was a good amount of trading early. Fair sales were made of No. 1 northern to arrive at the opening figures and there was fair trading in No. 2 hard both to arrive and in store. The market ruled active and firm for May and July and advanced 1/2 to 1 1/2 at close, after which it became dull and inactive with declining tendencies. Weak and lower all round than yesterday. Following were the closing prices:

No. 1 hard, cash, 62 1/2; January, 62 1/2; May, 62 1/2; July, 62 1/2; No. 1 soft, cash, 61 1/2; January, 61 1/2; May, 61 1/2; July, 61 1/2; No. 2 hard, cash, 60 1/2; January, 60 1/2; May, 60 1/2; July, 60 1/2; No. 2 soft, cash, 59 1/2; January, 59 1/2; May, 59 1/2; July, 59 1/2; No. 3 hard, cash, 58 1/2; January, 58 1/2; May, 58 1/2; July, 58 1/2; No. 3 soft, cash, 57 1/2; January, 57 1/2; May, 57 1/2; July, 57 1/2.

FIND FAULT WITH IT.

Ex-Governor Swineford's Ruling Against Re-advertising Final Proofs Meets With the Disapproval of Some Attorneys.

N. B. Thayer Criticizes it and Grows Sarcastic at the Position Taken by the Special Inspector.

Ex-Governor Swineford Speaks Highly of the Manner in Which the Duluth Land Office is Conducted.

Ex-Governor Swineford, special inspector of land offices, has made a temporary ruling refusing to allow re-advertising of final proofs in the case of timber and stone applications. The matter has been referred to the general land commissioner. It has been the custom of the office to allow re-advertising and thus an applicant could postpone his time of hearing. Ex-Governor Swineford looked upon this as putting a premium on speculation. His decision, however, does not meet with general approval. It is seen that ex-Governor Swineford stayed around here until he found something with which he could find fault, said Land Attorney N. B. Thayer this morning. "I see also that he objects to the practice of allowing timber and stone applicants to re-advertise their notice of intention to make final proof on the ground that it opens a field for filings that are speculative, if not fraudulent. He further says, if he has been quoted correctly, that a man can file on what he considers a good piece of timber land and when the time comes for final proof, if he has not found a buyer, he can obtain additional time to look up one. In the meantime, he has risked nothing but his original fee, and if he never finds a purchaser has only that to lose."

"Governor Swineford is further quoted as believing that speculation in timber and stone claims can be greatly decreased, if it exists at all, by refusing to allow the re-advertising of the final proof notice, and he has advised our officers here to take that position. In the meantime instructions or orders from the commissioner will be awaited."

"Now," continued Mr. Thayer, "if Governor Swineford was as well posted as he should be, he never would have made such efforts to find a pretext to exercise his official authority. All that has been decided time and time again by this matter is, I believe, that fifty twenty decisions have been made on this of re-advertising. If, when the time comes to make final proof, there is no adverse applicant, the claimant can re-advertise. If there is a contestant, final proof must be presented and then the maker retains or loses his land—all depending on the contest. Governor Swineford wants to read up on land office matters."

"Then as to this practice being conducive to fraud, I must take issue with the governor on that point. If a man has a claim that is of any value whatever, there is bound to be a contestant, especially if final proof is not made on the day advertised. Now, it is almost impossible to re-advertise without a contest being instituted. I think the present practice is best calculated to reduce fraud and speculation to a minimum."

ONLY ONE FAULT.

Special Inspector Swineford Finds the Duluth Office is Well Conducted.

Ex-Governor Swineford, special land office inspector, in conversation with a Herald reporter, said that he was much pleased in general with the manner in which the Duluth land office is conducted. He considers both the present officials very competent and away above the average. He said that he did not think there was a more competent man in a similar position in the United States than Receiver Frazer.

"The only fault I have to find with this office," said Mr. Swineford, "is that Receiver Frazer has other irons in the fire than the land office business. There is an erroneous opinion that a government official's duties have no claim upon him outside of the hours from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. It is the duty of these officials when the business of the office requires it, to put in longer hours than those. When there are cases to be decided, they should take the testimony home and view it there if they don't wish to remain in the office."

When the governor was asked by the Herald reporter if more ought to be required or expected from local officials than from those at Washington, he volunteered the surprising and unusual statement that when necessary the department clerks and officials work after regular hours. With a most sober countenance, he declared that men in the land department often work as late as midnight and even until 1 o'clock in the morning. The reporter faintly and the governor passed on to the street.

Disease Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the eye. There is only one way to cure disease, and that is by constitutional remedies. Diseases are caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eye. When this tube gets inflamed, it produces a running of the eyes, and when it is not properly treated, it results in blindness. It is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored, forever. It is a cure of the eye, and it is a cure of the mucous surface.

SUING A RAILROAD.

Two Men Want Damages for Personal Injuries From the Iron Range Road.

The Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company is defendant in two damage suits for considerable amounts. Robert W. Armstrong wants $10,135 for injuries to his head, back and side, alleged to have been received on March 20 last, near Biwabik, while he was engaged in performing his duties as switchman. He claims that he was knocked off the pilot of an engine by a stack-pole which had been left in a careless position by the company and which was not of the proper size.

John Peterson is another claimant of damages from the same company. He alleges that on June 9 last he boarded a train at the Duluth, Missabe & Northern crossing to ride to McKinley, that he was perfectly ready and intended to pay his fare, but that the employees of the railroad company forcibly ejected him from the train in such a manner as to cause him to fall under the wheels and lose a leg. The sum claimed for damages is $15,735.

A. N. Seip files a case against P. McDonnell for alleged trespass in the sum of $750. The defendant has filed an answer.

The B. B. Richards Lumber company is the defendant in a suit brought by Oscar A. Peterson, a lumber owner who operates along Red river or Lord's creek in Douglas county, Wis. Peterson claims $145.40 damages for a quantity of telegraph poles which he alleges that the defendants caused to be cut loose from their moorings and lost.

The Missabe and Northern Townsite company is plaintiff in a suit against the Crane and Ordway company concerning a lot in Mountain Iron for which the company wants a judgment of ownership.

James McPherson has entered suit against J. Eaton Powers in the matter of a warranty deed brought suit against John Doyle has brought suit against the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway company for $10,000 damages. He claims to have been struck and injured on one of the company's steam shovels at Columbia.

Laura Herman wants $1000 from Isaac Davidson to compensate her for damage caused to her character by alleged slander.

Frank Genery sues for divorce from Ellen Genery, his wife, who he says, deserted him and is now an inmate of a disreputable house.

The district court has over-ruled the demurrer of Harris & Co., of Chicago, in the action brought by the city to recover the amount lost to Duluth by the company's failure to take the bonds for which they made the highest bid.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the district court in the cases of Louis H. Griest and Emma Hermann vs. M. O. Hall and of Owen Fargusson appellant, against the Duluth Improvement company. The mandates were filed today.

The Duluth Gas and Water company has filed an answer in the case brought against it by the city of Duluth. The water company denies that it failed to restore the streets over which the controversy exists, and says that it never promised to pay for the subsequent repairing of sidewalks, pavements, etc.

The Marshall-Wells Hardware company has filed a complaint of intervention in the case and wants to be a party to the suit.

BURNED SOME BONDS.

Some Old City Obligations Consigned to the Flames This Morning.

This morning, at the city hall, $742,000 worth of city bonds were destroyed by fire. January 1, 1893, there were issued 312 park bonds of the denomination of $1000 each, but only seventy of them were ever sold. The 242 left were among those consumed. April 1, 1893, refunding bonds to the amount of $200,000 were passed by the council, but not approved. They were in the batch burned. July 1, 1893, general fund bonds in the sum of $300,000 were issued and approved but no bids for them were ever received. The fiery flames licked them up in the conflagration today.

These bonds were burned by Alderman Hugo, City Engineer O'Brien and Comptroller TenBrook. They were worthless and were consigned to the furnace in the city hall basement.

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTER.

Freight Traffic Seems to be Improving and Agents Are Hopeful.

The outlook for railway freight traffic has brightened considerably within the past week or ten days, and it is confidently expected that there will be a speedy revival in that line of business. This is one more sign which makes business men hopeful for the near future. R. A. Eya, general agent of the Northern Pacific railway, in answer to a question this morning said that the outlook was improving. His company, it was learned, has lately commenced negotiations with many local lumber dealers whereby the Northern Pacific lines will soon have large quantities of timber to carry to the Southwest and West.

In the passenger department the new rate-sheet, just finished, and restoring the old schedule of fares, was received yesterday, and right after it came the report of the Union Pacific's big cut to Puget Sound points. The news was of a rather dubious character, in view of the fact that the Union Pacific has an opening into the Northwest over the Omaha line.

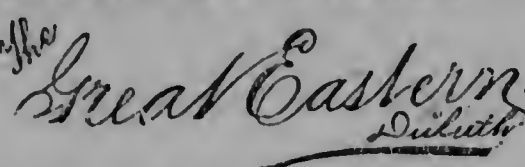

Throughout the city generally the ticket offices report a light traffic, which, however, is accounted for by the fact that January is the month in which the least traveling of the year is done. The finding of this new market for lumber of all sorts at such considerable distances seems to be an indication that the revival in that line is quite general and that new consignments will be shipped down from this region soon.

Sixty cents a month will have The Herald delivered every night at your home.

Cheap Rates to California.

The Northern Pacific railroad has put into effect a series of low round trip rates to California points. Tickets are good until April 30, 1894, and are good for stop over under certain conditions. These rates will enable those desiring to do so, to spend the winter in Southern California or to visit the midwinter fair to be held at San Francisco. This latter event will undoubtedly be second only to the World's fair just closed and will repay a visit as it will exhibit the resources and capabilities of California. READ what the leading Commercial paper of America recently had to say about Duluth flour:

"Flour was dull and unsettled on spring patents, as the Duluth mills are making the market for Minneapolis not only, but getting the trade, as they are able at that point to get better wheat than Minneapolis at less cost, while not making such a large percentage of patents as Minneapolis and hence a better and stronger flour, which is taking the place of the Minneapolis brands of older reputation, at less prices." ## DECIDED TO RESIGN

A London Newspaper Asserts That Mr. Gladstone Has Decided to Resign the Premiership Immediately.

The Pall Mall Gazette Says Its Information Comes From Authority That It Considers Reliable.

Mr. Gladstone's Decision Due to Advanced Age and Strain During Last Session of Parliament.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The Pall Mall Gazette says today under a headline: "We have heard from an authority that Mr. Gladstone has decided to resign the premiership immediately."

The Pall Mall Gazette adds: "We understand that a letter announcing his resignation will be sent to the queen by Mr. Gladstone before the opening of parliament. Mr. Gladstone's decision is due to a sense of his advanced age and to the great strain to which he was subjected during the late arduous session of parliament. He is also deeply disappointed because of the rejection of the home rule bill and the opposition to the parish councils bill by the house of lords. Domestic pressure also had considerable influence in determining his mind at last. 'Who will succeed him, and what will be the result?'"

In response to inquiries made at the foreign office Lord Rosebery, foreign minister, said: "I have received three letters from Mr. Gladstone since he has been at Biarritz and in none of them does he make the slightest allusion to an intention to resign office."

BENHAM'S ACT APPLAUDED.

The French Naval Commander Congratulated Him on His Vigorous Move.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—A dispatch received in this city from Rio Janeiro says the reason the American bark Good News and Julia Rollins did not accept the offer of protection made to them by Rear Admiral Benham, commanding the American squadron there, was that G. M. Rollins, an American, was acting as the agent of an English firm that was supplying the insurgents with money, persuaded the captains of those vessels not to change the position of their vessels.

The dispatch adds that the French naval commander has congratulated Admiral Benham upon the vigorous action he took to protect the American vessels. The commander of the Austrian warship in the bay, when he saw that trouble was brewing, ordered his vessel to be cleared for action so that he might be ready to give assistance to the American vessels if it was necessary. The dispatch also states that the prolonged absence of Admiral Mello from Rio has given rise to the reports that he is dead.

A COMPROMISE PROBABLE.

Ex-Governor Foster and His Assignee Settling the Former's Affairs.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 31.—Ex-Governor Charles Foster and his assignee, Hon. W. B. Gromley, of Bucyrus, were in this city last night to transact business with local bankers relative to settling Foster's financial affairs. Regarding his financial affairs ex-Governor Foster stated that he would much prefer to have his assignee speak for him. "There is nothing in public interest on our visit here," said Gromley, "but affairs are going on smoothly. We are trying to effect a compromise, and it looks as if it would be done very shortly. A compromise will be the best thing all round—best for the creditors and best for Mr. Foster. Considerable towards bringing about this end has been done recently, and we are in hopes that a settlement is not far distant."

The Silver Idea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—Senator J. P. Jones, speaking of the duty of congress at the present session, said it consisted in giving employment to every willing hand at a fair compensation, the only way of doing which is through the free and unlimited currency of silver.

Verdict for $500.

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 31.—The jury in the case of Mary O. Davis, against the estate of Walt Whitman, the poet, returned a verdict on the supreme court last night for $500. The suit was for $500 for money advanced and services rendered.

Killed by a Patrolman.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—A long standing quarrel between Patrolman Bacon and Louis Arado was renewed in a saloon this morning. Police Officer Charles Arado joined his brother in the fight and was shot and killed by Bacon. Bacon was arrested.

Will Not Resign.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Representative Beltzhoover, of Pennsylvania, emphatically denies the report put in circulation that he intended to resign his seat in congress because of his attitude in regard to the tariff bill, especially in connection with the metal schedule.

Minnesota Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The following pensions were granted today: Henry E. Morse, Minneapolis; Hans Olson, Yellow Medicine; Patrick S. Gardner, Le Sueur; Stephen Lyons, Wayzata; Harriet B. Elliott, Rockford.

THEIR THEORY KNOCKED OUT.

A Scheme of Two Wisconsin Men That Did Not Work.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 31.—The supreme court yesterday rendered a decision of great public interest. Last June Benjamin Sweet, of Milwaukee, and John O'Connor, of Waukesha, made application at the state land office for the purchase of about 42,000 acres of public lands and insisted on depositing funds to secure the purchase.

The land commissioners, however, denied the application, on the ground that the lands had been constituted part of a public park by state law. This fact was well known to Sweet and O'Connor, but they carried the case to the supreme court, claiming that the law setting the lands aside was unconstitutional in so far as under the fundamental law these lands were classed as school lands, the proceeds of whose sale were to go to certain educational purposes, and that, therefore the legislature could not properly set them aside as a park.

The supreme court yesterday knocked out their theory, and their scheme worked Sweet and O'Connor would have cleared up $200,000.

BILLY EVANS THE WINNER.

He Knocked Out Tom Riley in the Eighth Round.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Jan. 31.—Billy Evans and Tom Riley, Warren pugilists, settled a long-standing grudge in a building in the Mercer county fair grounds at Sharon, last night. About seventy-five sports from Warren, Youngstown and Sharon saw the fight and shivered in the cold while the men fought eight bloody rounds.

Evans put Riley out in the eighth round, but had to fight for his victory from the start. Billy Martin, of Pittsburgh, was referee, and the watch was held by Jewett McGowan. Riley was punished about the face, having both eyes closed and his nose broken. Evans had no marks of the battle. The fight was for $50 a side and the gate receipts.

A VERY TOUGH PAIR.

On Trial for Murder in Chicago and Wanted in La Crosse.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—George Lewis and Ernest Pernel, now in jail charged with murder and robbery, are also wanted at La Crosse, Wis. Chief of Police Byrne, of La Crosse, is here after them. Pernel, Lewis and Bert Young were charged with killing a bartender at Lomax's saloon, Harrison and Clark streets. On a plea of guilty Young received a life sentence and is now at Joliet. Chief Byrne says that in La Crosse, Young, Lewis and Pernel went into a saloon with revolvers drawn, masked faces and a command for everyone to throw up hands. Casper Zweidke, a salaried lumberman, who resisted, was shot dead. The gang then rifled the pockets of the crowd, broke open the money drawer and fled.

FIFTEEN INDICTMENTS.

Charges Against Officers of Suspended Kansas City Banks.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 31.—The grand jury yesterday made a clean sweep of the charges against officers of banks which closed here last summer.

Fifteen indictments were returned against George W. Toutmin and Horace S. Lynn of the Kansas City Savings bank; fourteen against Willard P. Holmes of the Security Savings bank; five each against President Darragh and cashier Sattley of the Kansas City Savings bank, and one against John Reid of the Western Trust company.

All were charged with embezzlement and accepting deposits when they knew their banks were insolvent.

STEALINGS OF A BANKER.

C. W. Mosher Alleged to Have Taken Over $600,000.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—A special to the Herald from Lincoln, Neb., says: Judge Tibbets yesterday overruled the motion of C. W. Mosher to dissolve the attachments secured by the creditors of the Capital National bank against Mosher's home property, the household furniture, his other Lincoln City and York county property.

The transfers had been made to Henry Mansfield, of Peoria, Ills., E. Thompson, E. Hurlbut and W. H. Dorgan. In answering the petition W. H. Haley, one of the creditors, gave it as his opinion that Mosher's stealings amounted to over $600,000.

CINCINNATI CHURCH BURNED.

St. Rosa Catholic Church Destroyed by Fire This Morning.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 31.—St. Rosa Catholic church on Eastern avenue at the foot of Torrence road, burned at 7 o'clock this morning. Loss $50,000; insurance less than $20,000.

In some mysterious way the altar caught fire and the blaze having gained considerable headway before it was discovered, an alarm was turned in and the entire department responded, but it was powerless to save the building. While Company No. 6 was on its way to the fire, the engine overturned at the foot of Torrence road and Driver Tom Riley was probably fatally injured.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 31.—A broken rail near Clio, Ala., on the Central Georgia railroad, wrecked a passenger train last night. Two coaches and the express car turned over and fell down a 25-foot embankment. Isaac Stevenson, of New York, was badly cut in the head and back. R. A. Kooser, express messenger, had his leg severely mashed. James McIntyre, of Dadeville, Ala., was hurt in the back and several others slightly injured.

Store Shops Resumed.

READING, Pa., Jan. 31.—The shops of Orr, Painter & Co., stove manufacturers, resumed today full handed after an idleness of several weeks. The electric power line time some time. Over 400 men went to work.

QUIET NOW PREVAILS

Reports From the Deputies at Every Mine In the Coal District of Allegheny County, Pa.

The Ringleaders of Saturday Night's Riots Captured and the Headquarters of the Anarchists Found.

The Walls Were Profusely Decorated With Blood-Curdling Pictures and Many Guns Were Discovered.

MANSFIELD, Pa., Jan. 31.—The early morning reports from the deputies at every mine in the coal district, received at the sheriff's headquarters in this place, show that quiet reigned throughout the night. Twenty-five deputy sheriffs were sent to Pittsburgh last night and others will be dismissed today. A sufficient force will be retained, however, to cope with any sudden outbreak. Four mines in the district are in partial operation this morning. The fact that the foreigners refuse to enter any of the mines is considered significant by some well-informed individuals, who contend that as soon as the deputies are removed rioting will again commence.

It is also argued that the men felt that no mercy will be shown them, and in event of another outbreak, they will cause all the damage they can before surrendering. During the night ten deputies made a raid at Essenaue, on Painter's run and captured thirty men, Russians, Italians and Poles. Several exciting conflicts attended the arrests, but no one received serious injury. Every prisoner was armed either with knives or revolvers.

Deputy Young, with ten men, left here at 10 a. m. to make arrests in the Tom run district. Notices were posted here this morning signed "Fit committee" calling upon all of the miners in the Mansfield valley to meet here this afternoon. The object of the meeting cannot be definitely ascertained.

Deputy Lowry, at Bower Hill, reported at 11:30 o'clock that with a squad of assistants, ten of the rioters at that point have just been arrested. The night ten deputies made a raid at Essenaue, on Painter's run and captured thirty men, Russians, Italians and Poles. Several exciting conflicts attended the arrests, but no one received serious injury. Every prisoner was armed either with knives or revolvers.

Among the ringleaders of Saturday's riots captured at Bower Hill this morning were the noted anarchists Benzel, Benish, Charles Perlich, Frank Choura and others. Several men resisted arrest and were overpowered and handcuffed. The village appeared to be a hotbed of anarchists. In every house were found pictures of the Chicago anarchists and inflammatory literature of all kinds. Guns, having evidently been used recently, were unearthed from their hiding places and captured. Among the prisoners are three boys who have been identified as those who set fire to the Benzel family tippie.

One man said pathetically: "Take my wife and children, too. I have no work and no grub, and if they lose me they will have no one to steal for them." The greatest find was made when Deputy Sheriff Morrey burst open the door of the house of Benzel Benish. Every inch of the walls of the three rooms the shab contained was covered with anarchistic pictures. Benish was known and handcuffed immediately. As the party was leaving the house they heard one of the children say: "Don't come out yet."

They turned back to find out what was meant. The searching party discovered that there was a cave-like room under the house. The key was demanded, but was refused. A threat produced it, however, and when the door was unlocked the officers started back in astonishment. The interior was arranged as a meeting hall. Guns, all of which had been recently discharged, were arranged by the wall. Here too, the walls were profusely decorated with blood-curdling pictures. Empty revolver cartridges were thrown about.

Charles Perlich was found hiding behind a pedestal. He was secured and afterward acknowledged that a meeting had been held in the place on Friday night, at which the leaders of the mob made known what they would do. Thomas Joyce, a miner, working in the Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal company's mine at Bridgeville, was fatally injured by a roof fall this morning.

WAS AGAIN DISAPPOINTED.

Congressman Baldwin and Hall Still Waiting for the Offices.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—[Special to The Herald.]—Minnesota congressmen were again disappointed today when the presidential appointments came into the senate. Both Congressmen Baldwin and Hall expected certain appointments in their districts.

Mr. Baldwin has been waiting patiently for the appointment of Fred L. Ryan for receiver of the Duluth land office and also for the appointment of Frank Ellenbacher, of St. Cloud, for register of that place. He hoped that some of his recommendations for presidential postmasters in his district would be given attention ere this, but no one seems to know now when the president will act in these cases.

Work For Five Hundred.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 31.—Operations have been resumed in three butt mills at the Middletown Tube works, giving employment to five hundred men.

A Democrat Elected.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 31.—The Seventh congressional district yesterday elected Turner, (Dem.) by a good vote over Root (Rep.), to succeed Governor O'Ferrall.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS TODAY.

Amendments Offered in Regard to the Tax on Whisky.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The last day of general debate on the tariff bill opened with a fair attendance in the galleries and a rather slim attendance on the floor. After the committees had been called for reports, the house went into committee of the whole to consider the tariff bill.

Mr. McMillin asked unanimous consent that the vote on the pending amendments and on all other amendments which may be offered, be taken at 4 o'clock this afternoon, but Mr. Burrows objected to debate being thus limited, as there would be one hour tomorrow before the bill is reported to the house.

Mr. Tate offered the first amendment to the internal revenue amendment, proposing to strike out the last three sections of the bill, which includes the tax of $1 per gallon on distilled spirits, and also the clauses referring to the bonding of distilled spirits and their withdrawal from the warehouses. The adoption of this amendment would leave the existing law as to spirits in force. He also objected to the extension of the bonded period from three to eight years.

Mr. Outwaite offered the following amendment: That on and after the passage of this act there shall be levied and collected a tax on all distilled spirits produced in the United States on which the tax is not paid before that day, per proof gallon, or wine gallon, when below proof, 90 cents, if paid within five days after the date of distillation of entry into bond; $1 if paid after five days and within one year; $1.20 if paid after one year and within two years; $1.30 if paid after two years and within three years, and $1.30 if paid after three years.

Mr. Outwaite said the house had just struck out the bounty on sugar, and it became it to impose such favorable conditions on the whisky producers. No one had asked for the extension of time.

Mr. Outwaite's substitute was defeated, yeas 42; nays 87.

Mr. Bland offered a substitute to permit distillers at expiration of the bonded period to pay into the treasury the cost of exportation and importation of liquor under present regulations, the product to remain in this country. Mr. Bland's substitute was defeated without division.

Discussing Mr. Dingley's amendment (retaining three years as the bonded period), Mr. McCreary said it it were adopted it would inevitably cause the bankruptcy of a number of distillers in the United States. A rising vote showed: Yeas 81; nays 75, and tellers were demanded by the Kentucky members. That vote resulted: Yeas 105; nays 80; so the amendment was adopted and the extension of the bonded period defeated.

DECIDED FOR THE CITY.

The Detroit Street Car Companies Lose All Their Rights.

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—In the case of the City of Detroit against the Detroit Citizens' Street Railway company to enjoin the use of the streets of the city by the defendant company on the ground that the 30-year grant made in 1879 was invalid, Judge Taft, of the United States circuit court, filed a decision here today.

In a former opinion Judge Taft had held that the city of Detroit could not give nor the street railway company receive a franchise for a period extending beyond May, 1903, when the street railway company's charter expired by constitutional limitation. The property and franchises are now, however, and have for four years past, been held by companies succeeding the original grantee whose charter period extends beyond the term of the franchise granted in the streets, and it was held that the city in dealing to these companies under the ordinance of extension was estopped from invoking the law against them.

Judge Taft's final decision is that there is no estoppel and that the companies are out of possession of the streets. The amount of property affected by the litigation is $4,500,000 which $1,500,000 is in stock interests and the balance in first and second mortgage bonds. The company is given three months to remove its tracks from the streets or make new arrangements with the city, but the supersedeas is also granted staying the effect of the injunction until the case can be reviewed by the circuit court of appeals. It will probably reach that body in May.

THE CANAILLE DISAPPOINTED.

Parisians Thought Vaillant Would be Executed This Morning.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The canaille of Paris suffered another grievous disappointment this morning, it being the second time they have been debarred the pleasure of seeing the head of the anarchist Vaillant dropped in a basket. There was an immense crowd in the place de la Roquette and the streets near the Roquette prison during the night, it being generally believed that Vaillant would be executed at about 8 o'clock this morning.

The crowd began to gather about midnight and patiently waited in the heavy rain to witness the putting of Vaillant to death. There was no sign of the guillotine being erected, and shortly after daylight the mob dispersed, when it became known that the execution had been postponed.

President Carnot will today consider the papers in the case of Vaillant and the application made by friends of the condemned man for a commutation of his sentence. He will confer with M. Labori, Vaillant's counsel, before he gives a decision in the case.

Marriage of Aristocrats.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—An event of great importance in the aristocratic world, the marriage of Bruce Baillie and the Hon. Nellie Lisa Bass, only child and heiress of Baron Bass, of the brewing company of Bass & Co., of Burton-on-Trent, took place today. The bridegroom, who is a Scotch landowner, is a cousin of the earl of Elgin, now viceroy of India. The bride is the prospective heiress of $30,000,000.

Mr. Childs' Condition.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—Mr. Childs passed a good night, but the physicians say there is no change in his condition.

HURRAH, BOYS!
Watch this paper tomorrow night. We may unearth some lines of goods tonight when we are taking stock that we may possibly want to dispose of, in such cases there will be Bargains. We say, watch for them.

WEST DULUTH ITEMS

Ray T. Lewis, John Jenswold, Page Morris and J. A. Keyes Addressed an I. O. G. T. Meeting Last Evening.

Capt. Lewis Denied the Statements That He is Interested in the Duluth Gas and Water Company.

Hook and Ladder Truck Tipped Over Yesterday, But No One Was Hurt—Other News.

The political campaign was opened in earnest last evening by the meeting held under the auspices of the I. O. G. T. The affair was a free-for-all, each party being invited to participate in the discussion. J. A. Keyes was called on to preside and represent the Populists. The meeting brought out a big crowd and filled the hall and stairway down to the street. Many were turned away, unable to gain entrance.

Capt. Ray T. Lewis, Republican candidate for mayor, was introduced as the first speaker and after apologizing for lack of oratorical powers stated in a straightforward and outspoken way his status in the campaign. He gave the lie to certain reports by saying that he was in no way connected with the Duluth Gas and Water company either in sympathy or financial interest; that he favored no corporation, had made no pledges and elected mayor of Duluth would as far as lies in his power, administer the affairs of the city justly and without favor.

John Jenswold followed and spoke for nearly an hour, roasting corporations, newspapers and everything else he could think of except Mr. Jenswold whom he lauded to the skies for his many character traits. The meeting was a success and the Populists, by the way, were controlled by the corporations, and especially the gas and water company.

Judge Page Morris was then called on and spent a short time pouring hot shot at the Jenswold arguments and riddling them with Gatling gun effects, at the same time keeping the audience in good humor with witicism.

Chairman Keyes then closed the meeting with a few remarks and a promise to speak at length at another date.

The Truck Tipped Over. A fire alarm was turned in yesterday by Chief Jackson to test the efficiency of the West Duluth department. The call was quickly responded to but a slight accident happened which upset matters for a few moments and came near injuring several firemen. Just as the hook and ladder truck was being hoisted over, throwing Driver Roche, Capt. Mayham and others upon the ground. Fortunately all escaped with slight strains and bruises. The truck was damaged but little and was quickly righted and the run was made as though nothing had happened. The accident was due to the narrowness of the running gear which made the apparatus too heavy. The chief ordered the truck put on wheels and the change was made at once.

They Mourn Her Death. The teachers and pupils of the Oneota school passed the following resolutions today:

Resolved, That it is with profound sorrow that the teachers and pupils of the Oneota school learn of the death of their friend and teacher, Miss Anna Porter. She has been loved and respected by all who knew her and especially by those who have come under her guidance here for the past two years.

Resolved, That they wish to express their sincerest sympathy for the bereaved family.

Republicans Will Rally. The Republicans will hold a rally on Thursday evening at Sutton's hall, on Grand avenue. Among the speakers announced are C. A. Towne, Dr. Barrett, Capt. Lewis and others.

There will also be a Scandinavian meeting at the same place on Saturday evening.

West Duluth Briefs. C. W. Paine, of the Great Western, has been promoted to superintendent of the brass moulding and finishing department.

Company G will hold a campfire on Friday night. Speeches will be made, refreshments served and the social side of military life enjoyed.

Messrs. Warner and Eaton will give a masked ball at 109 Second street south on Saturday evening.

N. M. Little, of the Mitchell & McClure outfit, returned last evening from a two months' visit to his home in Washington, D. C., and other places.

Max Robert, of Main street, is receiving a visit from his brother, P. Robert, of Milwaukee.

Neil McLain, captain of the Adams mine, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. C. H. Remington is again out after a period of sickness.

Allert Akstrom, of Kansas City, is in the city.

J. B. Goodwin, of New York, is here on business.

The Missionary union of the Congregational church met with Mrs. J. R. Brentry yesterday afternoon.

The West Duluth hose wagon was called out to the Bunnell block fire last evening.

Will Carry Mesaba Ore. The Mesaba Review says it is very probable that the six steel steamers of the Mesaba Transportation company will reach Duluth and Ohio ports next season, carrying the ore of the Mesaba range.

One of the Mesaba range group, A. A. Harns & Co., who control these Mesaba steamers, are sale agents for the product of this mine.

A VERY DULL MARKET.

Practically no business in Cash Wheat Until Near the Close.

There was a dull, stagnant wheat market here today—the dullness during the present crop year. May opened nominally unchanged to the below last night's close, and trading ruled small, but steady throughout the session. The total trade in cash and wheat to arrive was confined to one car of No. 1 northern hard at 64 1/2c above last night's close, and one car of No. 2 northern hard at 64 1/2c below last night's close. The market closed dull, but firm at yesterday's prices, except for wheat and arrivals, which was 1/2c lower. Following were the closing prices:

No. 1 hard, cash, 64 1/2c; January, 64 1/2c; May, 64 1/2c; July, 64 1/2c; September, 64 1/2c; No. 2 hard, cash, 64 1/2c; January, 64 1/2c; May, 64 1/2c; July, 64 1/2c; September, 64 1/2c; No. 3 hard, cash, 64 1/2c; January, 64 1/2c; May, 64 1/2c; July, 64 1/2c; September, 64 1/2c.

The Chicago Market.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—Wheat: January, 64 1/2c; May, 64 1/2c; July, 64 1/2c; September, 64 1/2c; No. 2 hard, cash, 64 1/2c; January, 64 1/2c; May, 64 1/2c; July, 64 1/2c; September, 64 1/2c.

New York Breadstuffs.

New York, Jan. 31.—Flour: Receipts, 45,000 barrels; sales, 275,000 barrels. State and western, 100c; foreign, 100c. No. 2 red, 100c; No. 2 white, 100c. No. 3 red, 100c; No. 3 white, 100c. No. 4 red, 100c; No. 4 white, 100c. No. 5 red, 100c; No. 5 white, 100c.

The Foreign Markets.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The grain markets opened this morning irregular. At Liverpool wheat had a downward tendency and fell 1/2c to 64 1/2c. At London, wheat was weak and fell 1/2c to 64 1/2c. At Antwerp, wheat was weak and fell 1/2c to 64 1/2c. At Amsterdam, wheat was weak and fell 1/2c to 64 1/2c.

Cattle and Hogs.

U. S. YARDS, CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Cattle: Receipts, 14,000; market slow, but prices steady. Hogs: Receipts, 12,000; market slow, but prices steady. Sheep: Receipts, 10,000; market slow, but prices steady.

The Minneapolis Market.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 31.—Wheat: Receipts, 10,000 barrels; sales, 200,000 barrels. State and western, 100c; foreign, 100c. No. 2 red, 100c; No. 2 white, 100c. No. 3 red, 100c; No. 3 white, 100c. No. 4 red, 100c; No. 4 white, 100c. No. 5 red, 100c; No. 5 white, 100c.

THE NAVAJO INDIANS

The Interesting Tribe of Thrifty and Prosperous Red Men Who Live in New Mexico.

A Brief Description of Their Picturesque Appearance in Their Autumnal Trading Visits to Town.

Something About Their Past History and Lawlessness—The Lesson That Kit Carson Taught Them.

"The most interesting people that I saw of the many tribes of the southwest," said the tourist newly returned from a transcontinental trip, "were the Navajo Indians in New Mexico. Arriving at Albuquerque late at night, I had begun to dress about half past eight, when a Navajo Indian, a tall, dark, handsome fellow, with a pair of moccasins on his feet, a pair of leggings on his legs, and a pair of moccasins on his feet, came to the window, and looking out the town, seemed to be in the hands of Indians. Through the doors of the large stores on the main street, Indians were passing in and out, or, grouped upon the platforms, were examining and cheapening goods as earnestly as country people might do in a New England village on cattle-show day. But how picturesque, even in soiled bargaining, were these dusky children of the plains and mountains!"

"Down the center of the wide sandy street a dozen mounted Indians were driving a line of young, sleek horses, some riding alone to prevent a stampede in that direction, and the others, in a half circle behind, urging forward the herd. Here were perhaps 50 wild steeds which had never known stable, fence, or spur, stepping high and prancing, with wild eyes glancing suspiciously about and tossing manes and tails. Every few yards they would halt together with their hands toward the center, and it was with difficulty that this tribe could be broken and the horses urged along. At a square a little way down the avenue the herd was held by its riders, a crowd of people gathered, and trading evidently began at once at a lively rate.

"What does all this crowd of Indians mean?" I asked of a man from Missouri who brought up my hot water. "Them's the Navajos," he said. "The first lot of 'em' just got into town to do their trading. They're buying blankets and ponies for swap for silver dollars and store goods."

"After breakfast, when I went out on the street, I was much impressed by the appearance and ways of these aborigines. Both men and women are of good size, with healthy figures, open, intelligent faces and impressive dignity of manner. Lighter in tint than many of the Indian tribes, their features display markedly the Tartar characteristics. To us they are strongly suggested a Mongolian as some other Indian peoples do a Semitic derivation.

"They come in from their reservation every autumn in parties varying in number from a single family up to 50 or 60 members and camp just outside the town, sleeping in the open air or sheltered by old army tents and blankets stretched from poles. Every day of my stay they came into the town, and the women, in their simple, but effective, dress, were to be seen in the streets to trade. To see these dusky riders sitting in unostentatious attitudes upon their ponies, holding in check a herd of restless horses while waiting for buyers, was a sight that beat pictures. They wore sombreros or old style but costly fur caps bought from the traders, and some of them and Mexican suits at their backs. Other-wise their costumes were pure Navajo, with buckskin or calico jumpers, buckskin leggings, moccasins and moccasins. Their ornaments in the shape of bracelets, earrings and crescent charms hanged from their necks. ## A Few Words for Mr. Jenowald.

To John Jenowald, Demo-Pop candidate for mayor of Duluth: At a meeting at West Duluth last night you are reported to have denounced The Herald
as a corporation organ and to have asserted that The Herald is controlled principally by the Gas and Water company and other corporations.You are a lawyer and it is natural to believe that you fully appreciate the significance of what you said and the meaning that your words conveyed to the public. It is also fair to presume that you did not utter these charges against The Herald without being prepared to substantiate them, otherwise you would stand convicted of being a hypocrite and a political trickster.The Herald denies the charges that you have made and it now calls upon you to produce whatever proof you have to support these statements. This is the first time that these charges, although retailed by several cheap demagogues who have endeavored to "feather their own nests" while throwing dust in the people's eyes, have been made upon a public platform, and The Herald cannot permit them to go unchallenged.If you, Mr. Jenowald, are the fair-minded and honorable man that your friends declare, you will promptly accept this challenge by The Herald and produce your authority for these statements. The list of the stockholders of The Herald is open to your inspection
at this office. The Herald has nothing to conceal in regard to its ownership,
and it would be pleased to have you call
and inspect the list and point out the man among its stockholders who has any interest in the Duluth Gas and Water company or any other public corporation either here or elsewhere.The Herald denies that there is any such man among its stockholders or that it is under the control of the Gas and Water company or any other corporation. Its steady policy has been to advocate that which it considers to be for the best interests of the city, but it has never played the role of the demagogue or pandered to extreme prejudices and it never will. This being the case, Mr.
Jenowald, you have grossly misrepresented The Herald, and the production of what you consider the proofs in support of your assertions is hereby demanded.

An Injudicious Act.

The message sent to the council on Monday night by Mayor d'Autremont in relation to the American Loan and Trust company was a surprise—not because of the statements contained therein, but because it was not considered probable that the mayor would adopt such an injudicious course. The surprise was increased when it was found that the mayor had furnished the Democratic organ in St. Paul with an advance copy of his message and other material sufficient to fill three columns and make a sensational article that cannot fail to prove injurious to Duluth.It is said by some that the mayor was prompted by political reasons to take this action and the matter was to be used for political effect in the present municipal campaign. It is almost impossible to believe this, and yet it may be true.
The act was so unwise and injudicious,
so far as the interests of the city are concerned, that this may be the most charitable view to take. Yet if the mayor was seeking to score a political point, he blundered badly, because if there is any blame to be thrown upon any city
official he himself is as much to blame
as any one else.The facts of the case have been known to every one for many months, but there was no occasion for publishing anything that would throw the slightest discredit upon any of our institutions. The city could not gain anything by pushing matters, while by waiting there is a certainty that nothing will be lost. The city is protected by ample bonds and is thus secure. The council stands in the same position. The council knew all the facts and decided to allow matters to standuntil the new manager of the trust company could straighten out its affairs. It is therefore incomprehensible why the mayor should become a party to a St.
Paul paper's evident attempt to injure Duluth's reputation.

Heavy Democratic Losses.

The special elections in New York city yesterday for members of congress to succeed Messrs. Fellows and Fitch, resigned, had quite surprising results.
The districts were the fourteenth and fifteenth, two Tammany strongholds.
In 1892, the Democratic majority in the fourteenth district, Col. Fellows being elected, was 5825. Yesterday, the Republican candidate, Lemuel E. Quiggan, editorial writer on the New York Tribune and engaged in newspaper work in Montana several years ago, was elected by a plurality of 984, the vote standing: Quiggan, 13,660; Brown, 12,582. This is a swing change from the result eighteen months ago. The fight was mainly on the tariff issue and the result may be properly regarded as a repudiation by this New York district of the Wilson tariff bill.In the fifteenth district, the Democratic candidate, Isidore Strauss, was elected to succeed Ashbel P. Fitch, but there was a big shrinkage in the usual Democratic vote. In 1892, Mr. Fitch had a majority of 11,850. Yesterday
Strauss secured a plurality of 4689, a Democratic loss of 7152. This makes a net Democratic loss in two congressional districts of 17,001. Politicians will not be slow in appreciating the significance of these figures.

His Election Assured.

Although the date for the city election
is nearly a week ahead, the indications are very strongly in favor of Capt. Lewis becoming the next mayor of Duluth. In fact, there is no ground for any doubt on this score. It is surprising to see the very general support that Capt. Lewis is receiving, irrespective of party lines. Of course his most enthusiastic supporters and hardest workers are found in the Republican ranks. This is natural because he is the nominee of that party,
and because many of his warmest personal friends belong to that party.Many Democrats also announce their intention of voting for the captain. They do not feel bound to vote for a Populist merely because he received the endorsement of a Democratic convention, and not an unanimous endorsement either. There being, from their point of view, no Democratic candidate in the field, they have decided in favor of Capt. Lewis against his opponent.It is also found that the large independent vote which practically decides every election in Duluth is to be cast for Capt. Lewis. He is a business man of known ability and of conceded integrity,
and why should he not receive the support of every citizen who desires to see an honest, businesslike administration?The report of the commissioner of immigration at the port of New York shows that 32,385 immigrants landed during the past year. Of these 54,576 were unable to read or write. Italy sent the largest number of immigrants, 60,974, of whom 44 per cent were illiterates. Next in numbers were the Germans, 55,081, of whom only 1239 were illiterates. Russia sent 37,100, of whom 117 per cent were illiterates. Of the 22,710 from Hungary 20 per cent were illiterates. Of the 5000 from Poland, 50 per cent were illiterates.Monday last was the thirty-third anniversary of the admission of Kansas as a sovereign state of the Union. The school children of Kansas, as is their custom on this day, decorated their young bosoms with paper sunflowers and recited the "Washerwoman's Song" and other poems by Kansas poets, and joined in singing "John Brown's Body," all under the temporary school room proscenium
arch, whereon was inscribed with letters of white cotton, "Ad Astra Per Aspera."Under the English law, no man who is bankrupt can hold a seat in parliament.
Some time ago Michael Davitt got into financial trouble and was obliged to leave parliament. A Dublin dispatch says he has been discharged from bankruptcy, consequently he can again sit in parliament. The home rule cause needs his presence there.The St. Peter Tribune gives a report that the St. Paul Republicans are talking of running ex-Governor McGill as their candidate for mayor. This seems improbable, as Mr. McGill is engaged in business in Minneapolis.There is more talk in Minneapolis about arresting Menage and bringing him back for trial. But there is little probability of this course being adopted.
There are too many people there who do not want to see him brought back.That was a neat thing about the "good citizen" which Franklin MacVeagh said in Chicago a few days ago: "The worst feature of the good citizen is his ignorance and his ignorance of his ignorance."The son of the governor of North Carolina has just married the daughter of the governor of Alabama. No doubt the governor of South Carolina was requested to indicate his preference.The men who bet Mitchell would knock Corbett out are counting ties
from Florida.

Right on the heels of the announcement that Louis Kosuth, the Hungarian patriot, was regaining his old-time vigor, comes the report that he has had a serious relapse.The house will vote on the Wilson tariff bill tomorrow, and the bill will be passed by a large majority. But wait until the senate takes a crack at it.They call it the Midwinter fair but they claim it is summer there all the year round. How is this?

"Contentment" She Meant.

Glasgow Herald: Grandmother had just passed away, and the clergyman had been in to say a few words of comfort to the sorrowing granddaughter.
"Ah, yes," said he, "we should not grieve too much, considering the ripeness of years to which your grandmother had attained."
"Another year, sir," said the sorrowing granddaughter, "and we should have minded it a bit, but it was provoking to have her die at 90. We had so set our hearts on her being a cent—cent—turion,
an' noo—noo—noo—oh—oh, oh!"
Astomishment and collapse of clergyman.

All the Modern Improvements.

Satan frowned.
"Are you one of those fellows," he sternly demanded, "who are still circulating the fire and brimstone reports?"
"And you really think," the prince of darkness sneered, "that we have no more effective methods of torture than were in vogue a thousand years ago?"
The soul was silent.
"Here, Lucifer," called his majesty,
"impatiently show the man through the painless dentist and violin-taught-in-fifteen minutes departments."

It is, indeed.

Boston Courier: "Well," said Mrs.
Wabash, the newly made bride, as she threw herself into a luxurious fauteuil,
"it has gone off very well and well,
but, of course, it has been a great fret and worry from first to last, and the trouble is these things must be gone through with so very frequently during one's life."
"Ah," she added with a sigh, "what a thing it is to live in Chicago!"

Could They Pass?

Auburn, N. Y., Bulletin: No female is eligible to be a scrub-woman under the state who is not able to explain the chemical composition of salts. Here is a chance for our high school girls.

"Comrades."

Chicago Times: The man that broke the bank at Monte Carlo has lots of companions now in the men who lost their socks on Charlie Mitchell.

The Iron Ore Question.

To the Editor of The Herald:
In view of the fact that there are a great many conflicting statements being made at the present time as to the cost of mining on the Mesaba range, I think it due the public that actual figures should be given by some one in order to show the fallacy of the many ridiculous assertions that are being made every day.In referring to a pamphlet issued some time ago by the Duluth stock exchange entitled: "Is this hand worth playing," I find the following on page 54: "Taking the maximum figure for steam shovel
work, for the sake of being conservative, and assuming that it will cost 40 cents a cubic yard to remove the earth, then the amount chargeable to each ton of ore is but 10 cents. But much of it can be removed for 20 cents a cubic yard, or but 5 cents a ton, and steam shovel operators stand ready to contract to remove the earth 1000 feet from the stripping for 10 cents a yard, as soon as the railroad gets in so that they can transport their machinery. This reduces the cost to but 2 1/2 cents a ton to lay bare the ore." On the same page the statement is made that Professor H. V. Wadsworth, the assistant state geologist, says that much of the ore, particularly at the feather edge or tip of the deposit, can be moved at nearly if not quite the same cost as the earth, namely: Ten cents a yard or 5 cents a ton.Again, a table appears on page 55
showing the cost of mining ores in the iron producing states ranging from $3.44 in the state of New Jersey down to 44 cents a ton in the state of Oregon, as shown by the census tables, and on the same page appears the following statement: "Suffice it that the Mesaba range today is capable of producing an abundance of rich ore at a cost for mining far below that of any other known field in the United States; so much below, in fact, that it will be an important factor in gradually changing the locale
of the center of iron and steel production." Now if these figures are correct,
the cost of mining ore at the Mesaba range is far below 10 cents a ton, and this includes royalties for the land in the table mentioned above, royalties are included in the cost. Now, Mr. Editor, are these figures correct? If they are not, has the Duluth stock exchange been guilty of trying to deceive the public by misrepresentation?

Retired William.

Bill Nye is getting fat. He showed the best color and smoothest front of many years. His European trip has done him good, and the audience was singularly appreciative of the compliment paid Washington that his season
should begin here—trying it on the dog,
so to speak. He gets better every year.
He told stories and meandered on through the picturesque land of imagination until nearly 11 o'clock, and if he had not been gently hinted to the audience that it was bedtime he might have been telling them yarns yet.Mr. Nye told of the elaborate arrangements which he made to be received by the Tompkinsville Unipah Comphah band,
which had greeted a celebrated actress
on her return from an unsuccessful European tour on the Germania and her uppers, of his experience with a compassionate and his idea of a Swedish dialect story. The applause was so thick it could be cut with a knife and sold to a boiler factory for noise, and both Williams favored it and did not resist when the audience knew that they liked to be liked.—Washington Post.

Waglieh—A family tree.—Puck.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running round of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is not a disease, but an inflammation of the Eustachian tube.

We will cure you for $100.00 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cussey & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists.

CANNOT READVETISE

General Land Commissioner Lamoreux Telegraphs That Local Land Officers Cannot Allow Claimants to Readvertise.

Permission From the General Land Office Must be Obtained Before It Can Be Done.

This Decision Will be of Great Interest All Through Northern Minnesota—Comments of Attorneys.

The instructions from Commissioner Lamoreux in regard to the matter of allowing applicants to readvertise notice of final proof came quickly. Ex-Governor Swineford, special inspector, on Monday decided temporarily against re-advertising and telegraphed the general land commissioner. Yesterday afternoon the following telegram was received at the local land office:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29, 1894.—Register and Receiver, Duluth, Minn.: Claimants cannot readvertise under the act of June 3, 1878, without permission from this office. Letter follows.

S. W. Lamoreux, Commissioner. That order will be of widespread interest all over Northern Minnesota, and will affect all parties connected with timber and stone entries. For some time it has been the practice, when a timber and stone applicant could not raise the money with which to make final proof, to permit him to readvertise, if there was no adverse applicant. In some cases such applicants have been permitted to readvertise notice of final proof the third time.

Now local officers who have followed that practice have, as a rule, done so because they considered that numerous decisions by the secretary of the interior made it entirely permissible. Of course more will be known when the present commissioner's letter reaches this office. It is thought by no one that he intends to shut off this practice, but that he simply intends to hold within himself all discretionary and advisory power, that shuts out local officers entirely and relieves them from every trace of responsibility in such cases. There is no doubt, however, but that the commission, upon a proper and meritorious showing, will still grant permission to readvertise, as has been the custom here and elsewhere.

June 1, 1891, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Charles D. Smith, in the case of Ben P. Janssen, coming from the Sacramento, Cal., land district, rendered a decision, the syllabus of which is as follows: "An applicant, in good faith under the act of June 3, 1878, who, through no fault of his own, is unable to procure the purchase money, at the time fixed for the completion of the entry, may be permitted to publish a new notice, and, in absence of adverse claims to complete the purchase."

In this case Janssen broke an arm and was compelled to use his land purchase money to pay doctor bills. Several of the attorneys in the local office consider this decision most apt and applicable to such cases as come up in this office every day, but Register Taylor and Inspector Swineford do not.

With reference to the telegram Register Taylor this morning said: "I think this order all right. Last summer during the hard times, when return day came, applicants had no money with which to prove up. A certain case of this kind came up, and an affidavit was made, setting forth that, owing to the stringency of the times, the money could not be raised and asking an extension of time. The attorneys cited a case that Register Nichols, in that particular instance, considered allowable. That established a precedent and the practice began which has continued up to the present time."

"The receiver and myself, however, have thought that the practice went a little farther than it should. Inspector Swineford took the same view, telegraphed to Washington and this was the reply. "All of the attorneys approached by the Herald reporter seem well pleased with the order. J. H. Sharp said: "It suits me first rate. It will enable us to get our business." N. B. Thayer, whose knowledge of land office law and practice is second to none, said: "This doesn't alter the aspect of the matter at all. Instead of the office here granting the extension it will have to be granted by the Washington office. It will take just that much longer to get around. It will enable an applicant to hold his land a year in many cases and no one will be able to molest his claim. It will also increase an applicant's expense and make additional fees and business for the attorneys. The commissioner cannot help granting these extensions, for the matter has been too often and unequivocally settled by the secretary of the interior. They cannot consistently go back on the past."

Miss Porter Died Today.

Miss Ella Porter, sister of Dr. Porter, and a teacher in the public schools, died this morning at her home, 1823 West First street, of diphtheria. Dr. Porter, who was taken down sick with the disease some days ago, was somewhat better yesterday, but he is a dangerous sick man.

THINKS IT ALL RIGHT.

City Attorney Greene Approves of the Present Policy Toward the Trust Company.

With reference to the city's interest in the American Loan and Trust company's condition, City Attorney Greene this morning expressed himself as follows:

"I always have been in favor of the policy pursued by the city government in this matter—that is to say—in favor of not pushing our claim against the bank, but to let the bank and I see no reason why changing our position at this time or for taking any action against the bank. I believe that we will get our money much more certainly and quickly under the present policy than by taking any other course. I have full confidence in Mr. Richardson and the gentlemen managing the bank and I can see no reason why the city should do anything more than to examine the books of the concern and to keep an eye on its transactions, with a view to the protection of our interests. I have been frequently consulted by parties in control of the bank since last July and I have known the condition of things since that time. All the other city officials have had the same information as myself. This is all I have to say in the matter at the present time."

CASH DIVIDEND ORDERED.

Duluth Shoe Company Pays 7 Per Cent to Its Stockholders.

The Duluth Shoe company held its annual meeting yesterday and elected officers. President, R. F. Fitzgerald; secretary, L. Meindahl; treasurer, Joseph Sellwood. Notwithstanding the depression in business this summer the company has had a prosperous year. A cash dividend of 7 per cent was declared and a handsome sum carried to the surplus account also.

The prospects for this year are bright. The company has ten traveling men on the road covering Minnesota, the two Dakotas, Wisconsin, and Nebraska. The manufacturing department has been extended because of the increasing demand for goods of the company's own make.

Lake Passenger Tariff.

The local passenger tariff of the Northern Steamship company for the season of 1894 has been issued and shows that very reasonable rates are to be offered to the traveling public. From Duluth to Duluth the cabin passage one way is $7; round trip, $12; steerage, $11. These are for transportation only. Berths in state rooms and parlor rooms will be extra, according to size and location. The steerage is furnished with berths, but passengers must provide their own bedding.

Wants a Smoke Convention.

The city attorney this morning turned over to the health department a circular letter from Robert M. Van Horne, supervising engineer of Cincinnati. Mr. Van Horne wishes to hold a national convention of smoke inspectors in this city June 27 next. He does not wish to call this convention, however, until a sufficient number of those interested make unconditional pledges to be present. This letter is sent out for that purpose.

Only One Unworthy.

The clerk of the board of public works is still busily engaged in issuing pay checks to those who have completed twelve days' employment at city rock breaking. Up to noon about 100 checks had been paid out, and the balance of the day's checks will now properly be called for by some one each day until the work is closed down. Thus far only one man employed has been found unworthy of the relief given him.

Favorable to Mr. Emerson.

Judge Aber has not filed his decision in the petition of E. P. Emerson to adjudge to have a homestead right at the Spaulding, but it will be favorable to the petition. Under this decision Mr. Emerson will be allowed his suite of rooms and food and fuel for one year.

Sixty cents a month will have The Herald delivered every night at your home.

Cheap Rates to California.

The Northern Pacific railroad has put into effect a series of low round trip rates to California points. Tickets are good until April 30, 1894, and are good for stop over under certain conditions. These rates will enable those desiring to do so, to spend the winter in Southern California or to visit the midwinter fair to be held at San Francisco.

The world's fair just closed and will repay a visit as it will exhibit the resources and capabilities of California. St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to San Francisco and return to Missouri river, $50.00, and to Los Angeles and return to Missouri river, $70.00.

The Weather.
U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN., Feb. 1.—The barometer has fallen decidedly in the regions to the north of Duluth, where it is lowest, with a pressure of 29.8 inches. A high area is central over Nebraska, where the pressure is 30.2 inches.

The weather is slightly milder over Lakes
Huron and Erie, with light mists; elsewhere
fair weather prevails.
The temperature has risen 10 to 50 degrees in the regions from Western Montana southwest and 25 degrees in Eastern Tennessee. It has fallen 10 to 25 degrees in Wyoming and Eastern Montana and remained nearly stationary in other reporting districts.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today
4 degrees below zero; maximum 13 degrees

DULUTH, Feb. 1.—Local forecast until 5 p. m.
tomorrow: Fair; warmer Friday morning and evening; winds becoming southerly.

tomorrow: For Minnesota: Increasing cloudiness and snow in northwestern portion; distinctly warmer tonight; southerly winds. For Wisconsin: Fair, followed Friday by increasing cloudiness; warmer Friday; westerly shifting to southerly winds.

Mr. Jenswold Flunks.

The Herald last evening addressed an open letter to John Jenswold, the Populist-Democratic candidate for mayor, challenging him to substantiate his statement, reported to have been made at the West Duluth meeting, that The Herald is controlled by the Duluth Gas and Water company and other corporations. An offer was made to permit Mr.
Jenswold to inspect a list of the stockholders of The Herald, and he was challenged to point out any stockholder
in this paper who has one cent's worth of interest in the gas and water company,
or any other public or semi-public corporation.

Up to the time of this writing, Mr.
Jenswold has failed to accept the offer
or to give any indication that he intends to present any evidence in support of his charges against this paper. The Herald does not wish to believe that a candidate for mayor of Duluth would be so lost to all sense of honesty
and fair play as to make public statements of this character, without at least being prepared to submit authority therefor that he deemed reliable, because such action would justify lay him
open to the charge of being politically dishonest, an arrant demagogue, an impudent maligner and a deliberate falsi-fier.

The Herald does not desire to place
Mr. Jenswold in this position, but his silence in the face of The Herald's demand for proof is astonishing. As Mr.
Jenswold has flunked, can The Herald
be blamed for now asserting that his charge against this paper was a malicious and deliberate falsehood? Or can The Herald be justly criticized if it shall now proceed to show up Mr. Jen-swold's own record?

The British in Brazil.

Admiral Benham's detailed report of recent events in Rio, according to information received at Washington, will scarcely bear out the assumption of the London journals that the American admiral's vigorous action met with British approval in Rio. The belief at Washington is that Admiral Benham is pursuing a settled line of policy distinctly marked out for him by his government,
which directed him to proceed to the utmost limit, scarcely short of open hostilities, for the purpose of protecting the freedom of American commerce in the harbor of Rio and putting an end to the machinations of the monarchists against the constitutional government.

It is asserted that in this course of action he has encountered the steady opposition of all the other powers, except France and Germany. Great Britain especially has been pronounced in its sympathies with
the deposed monarchy and its efforts,
through the da Gama-Mello insurrection, to bring about a restoration of the imperial regime, with all the advantages to British commerce which a restoration of the old order of things was expected to bring about. It was because of the critical condition of affairs thus outlined that the American fleet in Rio has been strengthened up to a point which makes it the strongest naval force the United States has ever had in a foreign port,
and still other vessels have been held under waiting orders to be sent out there,
if needed.

The hostility of Great Britain to the constitutional government of Brazil, it is said, has been plainly manifested in the false intelligence continually sent out from Rio, and which is generally filtered through the channel of special dispatches
to the London Times, whose correspondent is on board da Gama's ship. Stories of Peixoto's resignation and of important victories gained by the insurgent land forces at various points "have all had their origin from this source and have had no proper foundation on truth."

The statements as to Admiral Ben-ham's attempted arbitration, it is asserted, have had their sole origin in the futile efforts of the London house of Rothschild to induce him to interfere in that manner. It is believed that the interference of the British has gone to such an extent that when the constitutional government gets rid of rebellious admirals, it will have several well developed "Alabama claims" against Great Britain.

One striking incident has been brought to light. It is now said that the alleged "accident" by which a British officer and a number of marines were blown up on Governor's Island in Rio harbor in December last, was no accident at all.
These men, it is said, were actually engaged in manufacturing explosives for the insurgents with the knowledge of the British commander. Peixoto got to know of their movements, established what they were doing by the testimony of 100 witnesses and then deliberately blew them up. Hence it was that when the British parliamentary secretary of foreign affairs was questioned in the house of commons on the incident, he replied that matter was being investigated, "but from the facts in possession of her majesty's government it did not appear to be a case in which reparation could be demanded."

The Brazilian government, it is well understood at Washington, keenly appreciates the friendly stand taken by the United States and it will not be due to any want of co-operation on the part of the constitutional government if the great volume of Brazilian trade is not turned aside from Great Britain and given to the United States, as soon as the disturbing causes which now hamper the commerce of Rio harbor are removed.

On the other hand, it must be remembered that the claim of the insurgents that they are fighting for constitutional liberty is not without strong foundation.
Whether or not Admiral da Gama is working for the restoration of the monarchy it seems fairly certain that the actual leader of the insurgent cause, Admiral de Mello, has no such intention.
He charges that President Peixoto has assumed the role of a dictator, and is even more dictatorial than was President
de Fonseca, who was forced to resign.
As The Herald showed the other day
from a magazine article by a well informed observer of events in Brazil, the insurgent claim of Peixoto's dictatorial methods has considerable foundation.

Admiral Benham's course in giving full protection to American merchantmen must receive full approval, however.
The justice of the insurgent cause, if it be just, will not warrant any interference with American commerce at Rio.

The Action of the House.

The house will today pass the tariff bill. The debate which has lasted three weeks will be brought to a close with a trio of speeches which will make the day
memorable and will be, in all respects,
a fitting climax to the lengthy discussion.
From 11 until 12 o'clock this morning the consideration of the bill was continued
under the five minute rule and then it was reported to the house. At 12 o'clock ex-speaker Reed took the floor and spoke for an hour and a half. Speaker Crisp then delivered an hour's address and Mr. Wilson, the chairman of the ways and means committee, closed the debate. Then voting began on the bill.

Under the rules, any member may demand a separate vote upon any amendment which has been adopted in the committee of the whole, but of course
the yeas and nays cannot be ordered unless requested by a fifth of a quorum. It was expected this morning that not more than five amendments would be voted on by roll call. These are the income tax, the extension of the date at which free wool shall go into effect, increase of duty on diamonds, the abolition of the bounty and the placing of refined sugar on the free list. It is possible that opponents of the last two amendments will not muster sufficient strength to secure a roll call. These are the only the really important amendments added to the bill in committee.

There was naturally a good deal of curiosity manifested as to the vote on the final passage of the bill. If a motion is made to re-commit the bill it will not receive Republican support and, with this knowledge, it may not be made. A motion to strike out the enacting clause
will not be in order. There is no doubt that the bill will be passed and that a final vote will be had by 6 o'clock this evening. A majority of from twenty to fifty is predicted. The Herald will announce the final vote as soon as it is received.

How the Senate Stands.

A New York paper has made a canvass of the eighty-five members of the United States senate on the Wilson tariff bill and also on the income tax measure that has been attached to the tariff
by the house. The result of the poll, as exactly as it can be stated in figures, is as follows: Republicans opposed to the Wilson bill in any form, 36; Democrats
opposed to the bill in the present form, 7; Populists opposed to the bill in its present form, 2; total opposed to the bill in its present form, 45; Republicans in doubt, 2. Democrats in favor of the bill, 37; Populists in favor of the bill, 1; total

now favoring the bill, 38.

The canvass on the income tax measure developed the following division of sentiment: Republicans in favor of the income tax (if a separate measure), 4;
Democrats in favor of the income tax,
23; Populists in favor of the income tax,
3; total in favor, 30. Opposed to income tax: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 10;
total, 34. Noncommittal or in doubt: Republicans, 10; Democrats, 11; total, 21.

A glance at the above figures will show that there is absolutely no possibility of the passage of the Wilson bill in the form that it leaves the house today. It is also probable that the seven Democrats opposed to the measure in its present form
will not agree to it without material
modifications of its free trade features.
They include senators who are opposed to placing on the free list raw materials
of which a sufficient quantity for manufacturers is produced in this country.
Under this head would come iron ore.
The probability is therefore that either
the Wilson bill will be defeated altogether or that it will be changed so radically that the house ways and means committee will hardly recognize it.

The Masses for Lewis.

The reception which Capt. Lewis received at the West End last night clearly betokens the splendid victory that he will secure at the polls next Tuesday.
The gathering was both large and enthusiastic. It was in a Populist stronghold, where the Demo-Pop candidate is expected to get his largest vote.

Unless all ordinary signs fail, Mr. Jenswold will have but a slim vote in the Sixth and Seventh wards on election day. The masses of the people are for Capt. Lewis, and he will bury his opponent beneath an overwhelming majority.

The St. Paul Globe yesterday continued its attack upon Duluth's standing in financial circles. The solidity of Duluth and Duluth institutions during the recent panic, and when St. Paul suffered severely, was displeasing to the Globe, and it would no doubt be delighted if its present mud-throwing resulted in creating trouble for some Duluth houses, but its venomous attack will fail.

The adoption of the income tax will affect the salary of every senator and representative to the extent of $20 a year, and will take away $500 from Mr.
Cleveland's annual allowance. The entire levy on congressional salaries will be nearly $5000. Lobbyists will please take notice of a probable rise in the price of votes.

It was H. P. Hall of the St. Paul Globe who once said that the best way to win success in the newspaper business was "to raise hell and sell papers." He is at present making a mighty effort to "raise hell" with Duluth's financial condition, but it is not likely he will sell
many papers here on that account.

Congressman Tawney is being mentioned as a probable candidate to succeed Mr. Washburn in the senate. There are indications that ex-Senator Sabin may again enter the race. Both these gentlemen have proven themselves good friends to Duluth, and this city feels kindly towards them.

The Niedringhaus brothers of St.
Louis, who cried the loudest when it was proposed to reduce the tin and tinplate schedules, are rushing work on the largest stamping works in the world.
The words and actions are hardly consistent.

Mr. Jenswold was a Republican before he became a Populist, and a year ago denounced the Democratic party in the strongest terms. Is it any wonder that Democrats do not feel bound to vote for him, merely because a majority of a Democratic convention endorsed him?

The county auditor of Olmsted county has appeared as a candidate for state auditor. The Republican county auditors who are candidates for the state office
will please stand up and be counted.

The large and enthusiastic meeting at Normanna hall last night shows that the Sixth and Seventh wards will give Capt.
Lewis a very heavy majority.

The Winnipeg papers are advising their readers to boil all drinking water taken from the Red river. This advice has a familiar sound.

A Stupid Performance.

Winona Republican: It is far from likely that in voting for free iron ore
Representative Baldwin, of the Sixth district, expressed the real sentiments of his constituents, Democrats or Republicans, but it was a very stupid performance, nevertheless, when the rag-tag and bob-tail of his home city undertook to put a personal indignity upon him by burning him in effigy. That is not the way either to change private convictions
or to make votes.

Insult to Hill.

Kansas City Star: Quite a joke is the report from Washington which says that Mr. Murphy will resign if Mr.
Peckham is confirmed. Picture Mr. Hill giving up any clutch on public office. It is absurd; it is criminal libel; it is unjust and insulting to Mr. Hill to give credence to so barbarous a rumor.

Long A. Fleese.

Chicago Tribune: Is that piece of bric-a-brac all your rich relative left
you?" inquired the visitor.
"Yes, sir," sighed the poor relation.
"My vase is my fortune."

SIGNED BY A NOTARY

An Important Document and What Will Come of It.

There is a Great Deal of Human Nature
In This Document.

To Say Nothing of a Large Amount of Human Needs and Wants.

One day recently the prominent notary Carlos L. Smith, Esq., was called upon by a lady, Mrs. G. A. Fisk by name, who resides at Waterbury Center, Vt., and the following and sealed in his presence and its truth duly sworn to according to law:

"About three years ago I found myself with a severe nervous trouble in my head. The disease seemed to be all over my head. When I moved my head on my pillow it seemed as though I was going right off the bed on to the floor,
my head swam so and I was so dizzy.
When I stopped down to light the fire
I had to take hold of the stove to prevent falling to the floor.

The beginning of my nervous troubles was caused by lifting, straining the nerves in the top of my head. I took treatment from a good many doctors
without any permanent relief, my head getting bad at times and gradually becoming worse. I decided that I had got to do something different and that quickly.

"I had seen Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised and I determined to give it a thorough trial.
I commenced to take it and immediately began to feel better. It has been of the greatest benefit to me. I have not had those dizzy spells since taking the Ner-vura.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE.— Whereas, default has been made in the payments of a certain purchase money mortgage which was duly executed and delivered by and to C. McMinn, mortgagor, to Martin

Minn. mortgage, bearing date the eighth day of October, A. D. 1892, and with a sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of St. Louis, and state of Minn. on the twelfth (12th) day of October, A. D. at three o'clock and a minute in the forenoon of the eighth day of October, A. D. 1892, in book 92 of mortgages, on page 139, which was thereupon duly assigned and transferred for a valuable consideration to Martin L. McMinn to S. H. Heyn, by an instrument of assignment, dated the 15th, 1892, and duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the register of deeds in and for said St. Louis county on November 9th, 1862, at 8 o'clock, in book 97 of mortgages, on page 10, default consisting in the non-payment of the promissory notes thereby secured one year after the date of said mortgage the sum of two hundred dollars, together with interest for one year on the whole principal secured by said mortgage at the rate of five per cent per annum, amounting to the sum of $225; whereas, the said mortgage is a lien on the said land, and there is actually a default of this notice, upon said debt the sum of two hundred thirty-five ($235.55) dollars, principal, and twenty-five dollars attorney's fees, listed for in said mortgage in case of fore and whereas no action or proceeding or otherwise has been instituted to recover said debt secured by said mortgage, or a thereof:

Now therefore, notice is hereby given virtue of the said power of sale contained in mortgage which has become operative by of the default above mentioned, and

Fanning to Buy It.

The closing details will be consummated today by which the large stock and business of the Hawkins Dry Goods company will be transferred by the Land and River Improvement company to W. R. Fanning, who will hereafter be the business manager of the concern, says the Superior Leader this morning.

The firemen's annual ball will be held at the Hotel St. Louis on Feb. 1. The receipts from the ball will be donated to the Ladies' Relief society.

MAY TEACH A LESSON.

National Education Association May Go to Portland, Me., as Eastern Roads Will Grant Concessions.

The Kicking Western Roads May Wish Then that They Had Acted Favorably Toward Duluth.

Superintendent Denfeld Goes to Chicago Saturday to Meet President Lane and Secretary Shepard.

It is just possible that Superintendent Denfeld will go to Chicago Saturday where he will meet President Lane and Secretary Shepard in consultation over matters pertaining to the National Educational association convention. If, on the next meeting of the Western Passenger association, Feb. 16, it is impossible to bring this convention here, it is just possible that it will be taken to Portland, Me. The Eastern roads will make the concession demanded and going to Portland will shut the Western roads out of much of the business they would get were the convention held in Duluth.

Secretary Shepard thinks that the Omaha road is not as stiff in the backbone for Duluth and the desired concessions as it might be, and if the convention goes East on its own terms, it will teach a good lesson and have a beneficial effect generally. However, no efforts will be spared to bring the prize to Duluth on terms that will guarantee a successful session.

New Military Company.

A new militia company has been organized in Duluth, or at least the preliminary steps have been taken. An election of officers was held last evening. Of the civil organization Charles Josten was elected president; Emil Resche, vice president; Alfred E. Watts, secretary, and A. M. Barsness, treasurer.

The company starts with about thirty members and expects to soon reach the number required before it can be initiated. It will probably be known as Company C, Third regiment.

Arranging for Curling.

The Duluth Athletic club met last evening at the Glen Avon rink. Committees were appointed to make arrangements for the curling for the Governor Merriam medal. The outside teams will come here on Feb. 21. Each city is entitled to send three rinks.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven, catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Hall & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $10 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: J. C. Hall & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

GRANTED A HOMESTEAD.

E. P. Emerson Can Live at the Spaulding But Without Fuel or Food.

Judge Moer filed his decision yesterday afternoon in the case of E. P. Emerson's petition for a homestead. He finds that the petitioner is entitled to his claim on rooms Nos. 100, 102 and 103 at the Spaulding, and the claim to the private dining room and a certain small dark closet on the third floor is allowed under a homestead right. The receiver is directed to allow the petitioner full use of the hallways, stairways, elevators and passages and is restrained from interfering at all with the petitioner's enjoyment of these rights.

In the matter of the claim for provisions and fuel, and certain articles of furniture, Judge Moer decides that the claim cannot be allowed.

In his memorandum of the case, the judge notes that counsel for the receiver conceded that a leasehold for a term of years is sufficient interest upon which to base a claim for homestead rights. The memorandum then proceeds to cite various authorities bearing on the disputed points and gives as one reason for denying the claim for fuel and provisions, or in lieu, heat and board, the fact that the receiver has in his hands no fuel or provisions which ever belonged to the petitioner and that the debtor has no rights in articles he never owned. The petition to recover the articles of furniture is denied because, so far as the record goes, their value may exceed the amount allowed the debtor as exempt.

Notice was filed with Clerk Sinclair this morning of a motion to open judgment and set aside service of summons as to Defendant H. A. Wing in the case of Elsten and Britz vs. James Billings.

The deposition of Harry Phipps in the case of Harry M. Phipps vs. Eliza A. and Albert Schick was filed.

In the case of Adolph Bessie vs. W. H. H. Stowell the deposition of Adolph Bessie and Daniel Patterson was filed to be used in the trial.

An order has been issued for the sheriff to collect $23,560.66 on an execution made against Henry M. Benjamin at the suit of the Pittsburgh, Fairport and Northwestern Dock company. The sheriff also filed his statement that he was unable to find either the defendant, Benjamin, or any property.

Notice was filed of motion for a new trial in the case of Julia A. Bennett vs. Amos C. Batchelor on the ground of new evidence.

Judgment for $310.71 by default has been given against John T. Jones and James Sheridan in a suit against Joseph A. Crowell et al. Judgment by default for the sum of $128.14 has also been granted in the case of the Duluth Loan, Deposit and Trust company vs. Herman E. Long and C. M. Gray.

Jacob Judenich wants $500 from Joseph Skala and Matt Judenich, which he alleges is due him for services rendered at Biwabik.

A transcript of judgment has been issued in the case of J. P. Brown vs. M. W. McDonald to recover $167.75 damages.

The death of August W. Schupp, aged 10 months, of catarrhal enteritis, at 315 Fifteenth avenue east, has been reported to the board of health.

TO REPLEVIN A HOUSE.

A Somewhat Unusual Proceeding at Law to Recover a Dwelling.

Angus McKenzie rented a house to Grace Wade and Jack Calvin near Hibbing, by whom, it is alleged, the place was used for immoral purposes. Some time after he had rented the house he went up to make some improvements and found that his house was on another lot. When asked what this meant, Grace laughed and said she guessed the wind had done it. Mr. McKenzie thereupon came to town and secured a writ of replevin and started back with it this morning. Should the owner of the land Western town street, now sought object to having it moved off the house will have to be replevined.

Caused Quite a Scare.

There was a little blaze in S. F. Boyce's drug store this morning which required only a few buckets of water to extinguish, but caused quite a scare when it did. Some alcohol was being drawn and caught fire in some manner.

An alarm was turned in and the fire department came from all sections of the city. The response was quickly made and the good time was favorably commented upon along the street. There came very near being an accident, through one of the horses on the steamer slipping out of his harness, but fortunately it occurred just as the engine was slowing up.

The School Examinations.

Today the examinations in the public schools close. About one fifth of the pupils were excused from these because they stood "A" in their classes. This practice of excusing all such and compelling all others to take an examination is a great incentive to a regular attendance and careful thorough work each day.

Procatheedral Concert.

The procatheedral club had a rehearsal at the Temple last evening and the program for the concert Friday night was carried through in an excellent manner. There is every promise of a fine musical event.

Judge Stein Reversed.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—The appellate court this morning reversed the decision of Judge Stein last summer finding the World's fair directors guilty of contempt.

MAY FIGHT IN TENNESSEE.

The Corbett-Jackson Fight May Be Puled Off There.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 1.—A prize fight near Nashville a few nights since has led to the question whether there is any law in Tennessee prohibiting such offenses. There exists a very strict and well defined statute against prize fighting, but it was enacted at an extra session of the legislature not called for that purpose.

Some general reference was made in the call to amending criminal laws, but there was no specific designation as to constitution requires. Under such conditions it is probable that an effort will be made to have the Corbett-Jackson fight pulled off in this state, that is, if Peter can be induced to change his mind about coming south.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

DECATUR, Ill., Feb. 1.—While playing cards with Miss Maggie Trulock and other friends, David Lambert laid a revolver on the table, after, as he supposed, having taken out the cartridges. Shortly afterwards Miss Trulock playfully pointed the revolver at Lambert and pulled the trigger. There was a flash and Lambert fell to the floor, fatally wounded. It is reported that she and Lambert were engaged to be married. Miss Trulock is nearly crazy and declares that she will kill herself.

The Deadlock Continues.

A Bloody Battle.

ASHVILLE, N. C., Feb. 1.—Word has just reached here of a bloody fight on the line between Green county, Tenn., and Madison county, N. C., between forces of men working on public roads. A pitched battle ensued, in which fourteen men were injured, six of whom have since died.

LIKED FREE SILVER.

A Young Messenger in the United States Treasury Vaults Stole a Quantity of Silver Dollars.

He Pried Open the Woodwork of Some of the Silver Chests and Helped Himself.

His Peculations Amount to Eight Hundred Dollars at Least, but the Inquiry Still Proceeding.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The peculations of James Anderson, of Indiana, a well connected lad, 18 years of age, employed as a messenger in the treasury vaults who was arrested for stealing silver from the vaults, prove more serious than was supposed. They amount to $700 as far as has been ascertained and the inquiry is still in progress. When the theft was first discovered it was supposed to amount to only a few dollars, and at the request of the treasury officials publication of the fact was suppressed.

The method of his theft was somewhat similar, though on a much smaller scale, to that pursued by Cochran with the gold in the Philadelphia mint. Anderson had access to the silver vaults for the purpose of showing visitors through the vaults the work of some of the silver chests containing the silver dollars and helped himself to a few dollars at a time as he wanted them. Whether his peculations will amount to more than the seven or eight hundred dollars thus far found out can only be ascertained by a recount of the silver. There are seven or eight millions of silver dollars in the vaults. Each million dollars of silver weighs in round figures thirty tons, so that the amount of money to be handled is about 240 tons. This will necessitate a force of ten or twelve men to work for two weeks or more counting and weighing the silver. The cost of this additional labor—$1000 or more—will be the only loss the United States will sustain, as the law makes the treasurer responsible under his bond for all losses through the dishonesty of employees and gives him no voice in their selection. Anderson was held in a $300 bond for the action of the grand jury. His company was the cause of his downfall. He was about to appear for final examination for admission to West Point.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.
A Montreal Man Shot His Sister and Himself.

MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 2.—Yesterday afternoon Plics Dufrene, who lived at 125 Champ de Mars street with his sister, Mrs. Brunel, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hamel, shot his sister twice, killing her, and then put a bullet in his own brain. Dufrene returned from the United States in October last, suffering from consumption, and went to live with his sister who was separated from her husband.

Lately Dufrene has been worrying a great deal as to what would become of his sister after he died, as she would have no one to protect her and would have no means to support herself, and it is supposed this was the motive that made him shoot her. Dufrene was 35 years of age and his sister 21 years.

May be Disbarred.
APPLETON, Wis., Feb. 2.—Judge John Goodland, of this circuit, has signed an order to be served upon Irving P. Lord, of Waupaca, citing him to show reasons why he should not be forever barred from further practicing before the courts of Wisconsin. The proceedings grew out of the Meade murder trial at Waupaca last fall.

Resumed on Full Time.
BELLINGHAM, B. C., Feb. 2.—The Bellingham Manufacturing company and Hall Brothers Manufacturing company, employing 300 men, started up on full time yesterday. The former concern is the largest refrigerator factory in the United States.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands will by the way of it be one of the victims!"

You are likely to be one of the victims!
How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms are—Backache, Headaches, Flashes and Faints, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Impatience, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc. Rev. C. A. CARROLL, pastor First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, O., writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for the past six months. I find it acts like a charm on the whole nervous system. I have not found its equal in giving immediate relief. Dr. Miles' little Nerve and Liver Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration. I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MICHENER, Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unequalled in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

A Parnellite Manifesto.

DUBLIN, Feb. 2.—John Redmond, Timothy Harrington and Joseph Kenny, leaders of the Parnellite section of the Irish parliamentary party, have issued a manifesto declaring that the Liberal government's rule in Ireland is a confessed failure. It does not, the manifesto adds, differ from Tory government. It has been marked by secret inquiries, evictions and jury packing. Home rule, it says, has been pushed aside, and it is therefore necessary to restore Ireland to her old position of "blocking the way."

The War Ended.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—A special from Knoxville, Tenn., says: The sixteen Tennessee soldiers under indictment for the murder of a miner named Drummond, at Coal Creek last summer, were freed yesterday by the circuit court at Clinton, their cases being not pressed. This ends the notorious Coal Creek war. Lieut. J. P. Fyfe, who committed the fort during the two days' bombardment in 1892, was the only officer indicted.

St. Gauden's Medal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The quadrennial committee of the senate has passed a resolution briefly declaring that the reverse of the St. Gauden's World's fair medal should be altered. This effectively disposes of the figure of "America" about which so much official and unofficial discussion has ensued. Mr. Preston, director of the mint, was before the committee and exhibited the original model, upon which the action of the committee was based.

A Banker Arrested.

BERLIN, Feb. 2.—Wilhelm Maas, a partner in the firm of Solomon Maas & Co., bankers of Mannheim, which failed a few days ago with liabilities of 20,000,000 marks, has been arrested. A hop merchant named Ludwig Maas, a friend of the bankers, who was involved in the failure, has committed suicide by shooting himself.

Still Disqualified.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Daily News discussed at length today the discharge in bankruptcy granted on Tuesday to Michael Davitt by the appeal court in Dublin. It was supposed that this certificate would make Mr. Davitt eligible to parliament. The News, however, reached the conclusion that his discharge will not remove his disqualification for a parliamentary seat.

Suing the Union Pacific.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 2.—The Union Pacific Railroad company is defendant in a suit brought by the United States to recover about $10,000. The case was filed in the United States circuit court yesterday, and the petition recites that the government was compelled to pay bonds amounting to nearly $10,000, given by the Union Pacific to Delaware Indians.

Will be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The president has approved the findings of the court martial in the case of Paymaster John Clyde Sullivan, United States navy, convicted of embezzlement and sentenced to dismissal. Paymaster Sullivan was accordingly dismissed from the naval service through a general order to be issued by Secretary Herbert.

The Lyons Fire.

LYONS, Feb. 2.—The fire yesterday spread from the stores of Favre and Lioux to several private houses, which were burned. Total loss, 1,500,000 francs.

Mr. Childs Improved.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Mr. Childs passed a good night and his condition this morning is somewhat improved.

The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.

A KALAMAZOO MURDER.

William Alguire, Horace Mansfield and Anna Wood Arrested for Killing Louis Schilling a Year Ago.

Alguire Has Turned State's Evidence and Charges Mansfield as Principal in the Awful Crime.

William Bush and Wife Murdered in Alabama and Judge Lynch May Try Their Assassins.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 2.—On Tuesday afternoon, March 21, 1893, at 1 o'clock, Louis Schilling, aged 60, and one of Kalamazoo's best known citizens, was found dead in his office on Portage street. His skull was crushed in and his throat horribly gashed and cut from ear to ear. The dead man's pocketbook was gone and, as he was known to carry a great deal of money about his person, robbery was the evident motive of the crime.

Today Sheriff Vosburg arrested William Alguire, Horace Mansfield and Mrs. Anna Wood Alguire. Alguire was turned state's evidence and charges Mansfield as principal in the murder and the woman as accessory before the fact.

Alguire says he heard Anna Wood and a young man planning the murder in her room. On the day of the murder Mansfield, who is a colored man, came to Mrs. Wood's room with a bloody knife and then threw it into the basket of dirty clothes.

JUDGE LYNCH'S COURT.

A Special Session May Be Held Soon in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 2.—At Luverne, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, respectable people living about five miles from the station, were murdered yesterday morning. The neighbors saw the window of their house open and on examination found Mr. and Mrs. Bush in bed, weltering in blood, their bodies riddled with bullets.

The crime was committed but a few hours before, as the wounds were fresh. Who the assassins were is not known. The cause is thought to be robbery, as the Bushs were known to have considerable money and none of it can be found. The crime is the worst that has occurred in the settlement in a number of years and all means are being resorted to to capture the murderers, and if such does occur Judge Lynch will hold court.

More Pensions Granted.

A PETRIFFIED BEAUTY.

Supposed to Be a Woman of Quality Who Died 700 Years Ago.

Who was the beautiful woman whose petrified bust, with arms and legs hands, stands on a pedestal in an artist's studio in Strasburg? Some workmen who were repairing the old Church of St. Fides in Schlettstadt, in Alsace, found this bust in a tomb under the choir. This part of the church was built in 1094 by the grand-mother of the great Emperor Frederick Barbarossa. It is known that these tombs contain the remains of members of the great families of the neighborhood, whose descendants kept these resting places of their ancestors in repair down to the middle of the seventeenth century and some still now. This tomb that the workmen opened had been rebuilt in the seventeenth century and was supposed to date from that time. When it was opened, the remains of a woman in a marble dress, and this wonderful petrification of bust and head, with the features clear cut and unaltered. About the head are two braids of hair, which are as soft as the breast, and the left hand is perfectly preserved. The clothing is of the finest quality, a long linen chemise, linen underclothing and a woman's jacket with a costly mantle, such as might have been worn by the lady abess of a convent.

The clothing and the way the hair is worn prove that this woman lived in the eleventh or twelfth century. She was evidently a woman of quality, about 40 years old, maybe the Duchess Adolphe, the aunt of Barbarossa and daughter of Hildegard von Schwaben, who built the church tradition has it that Adolphe died of the plague and was buried at Schlettstadt. This woman undoubtedly died of a contagious disease, and it is to this fact that her preservation is ascribed. When she was buried, mortar of some kind, or some preparation of lime, was poured over her, which, as it hardened, preserved the form and features of the face of great beauty, the features clear cut and refined and the expression noble. It might well be the face of a queen. The face of the Adolphe is said to have died while nursing the plague-stricken peasants of her neighborhood—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

The Marquis Paid.

The famous surgeon Velpeau was visited one day at his house during the consultation hour of a famous New York surgeon. Velpeau informed the marquis that an operation was urgent, and that the fee would amount to 4,000 francs. The marquis called him a very fine fellow and left. A fortnight later Dr. Velpeau, while making his rounds in the Hospital de la Charite, had his attention attracted by a face that seemed familiar to him. In answer to his inquiry it was stated that the patient was a footman of a nobleman in the Faubourg Saint Germain. The surgeon found that his case resembled in every particular the somewhat unusual one for which the marquis had consulted him a fortnight previously. He refrained, however, from making any comments.

Three weeks after the operation, when the patient was about to be discharged, Velpeau called him aside and exclaimed: "Monsieur, I am extremely fatigued and pleased to have been able to cure you. There is, however, a small formality with which you will have to comply before I can sign your exit—that is, you will have to sign a check for 1,000 francs in behalf of the humanity bureau of your metropolitan district." The patient's face became livid. "You can do what you like about it," continued the doctor, "but I must know tomorrow that the Marquis de D— adopted the disguise of a footman in order to secure free treatment at this hospital and to place himself in a position to be able to pay a pauper." Of course the marquis paid.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Wedding Dresses For Hire.

Brides on the east side like to look well just the same as brides do the world over. But with them money is not to be squandered. So they hire the dress—hire it at the same place where Chimmey hired his dress suit and Maime her costume when she went to the hotel where she was married as Mary, queen of Scots. You can find such places in Second street. There are about a dozen wedding dresses in each shop. Sometimes they are used in a stage wedding, but often in a real one. The rent runs from $6 to $10, according to the magnificence of the gown. They are beautiful creations—at least they seem so to a mere man—and are hand embroidered, with pearl fringes and lots of lace.

They must be looked after and mended every time they come back, just the same as the masquerade costumes. ## The Abuse of Slang.

It is not the use of slang which is to be deprecated; it is the abuse of it. The girl who every time she opens her mouth projects from it some word such as "awfully," "awfully nice," "awfully hard," "awfully square," "awfully round," and so on until you wish that she would, at any rate, advance into the alphabet as far as the "A's"—is not only a slang person; she is also in all human probability a fool. The same evil observation applies to the man who has become indolently joined to some slangy catch phrase as, for instance, "Don't you know," "He's a nice fellow, don't you know," "It seems to me to be a queer start, don't you know," "I can't stand clever people, don't you know."

We quite realize the truth of his last statement without his putting himself to the trouble of giving it audible utterance just as clearly as we surmise that it is just possible that clever people can't stand him.—All the Year Around.

The Easy Going Long Islander.

Whether it be due to salt or to inborn laziness, the fact cannot be disputed that the native Long Islander is the most contented, slow going human being this side of Philadelphia. We suppose that there are hundreds of people between Brooklyn and Montauk Point who have never traveled on a railroad, never seen a glimpse of a steam locomotive, and who are content to eat, drink and sleep. For enterprise that is positively clamlike the stretch of territory at the eastern gateway of Brooklyn is a region entitled to the palm.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Exactness.

WEST DULUTH ITEMS

Three Political Meetings Held Last Evening and There Was No End of Excitement for Everybody.

Dr. Barrett, Capt. Lewis, M. J. Davis, Ellsworth Benham and Others Expounded Good Republican Doctrines.

At the Democratic Pow-wow John M. Martin, Mayor of Autremont and Others Were Heard.

The different brands of politics were doled out to West Duluth voters last evening at three meetings held in different parts of the city. The Republicans rallied their forces in Sutton's hall on Grand avenue, the Democrats met at their regular headquarters while the Pops held a little sideshow somewhere in the western part of the town.

Dr. Barrett was introduced as the first speaker at the Republican meeting and fed the populace on such wholesome Republican doctrine that one Democrat who had gotten into the wrong meeting by mistake was taken suddenly sick and obliged to leave in the most interesting portion of the speech. He signified his disgust at the Republican menu by slamming the door with great energy as he made his exit.

Among other speakers who held the audience for several hours were G. J. Mallory, Capt. Lewis, M. J. Davis, the aldermanic candidates from the Eighth ward and E. Benham, of Duluth.

The Democrats had a good audience and good speakers also and awake a good deal of enthusiasm over the old-time Democratic hash. J. M. Martin spoke, followed by Mayor Autremont and Judge Hinchbaugh. Emil Olund filled out the program with a neat little speech endorsing Jensen.

January Police Record.
The following is the record of the police department for the last month: Eleven arrests made but no fines collected. The charges were: Five drunks, 1 drunk and disorderly, 4 larcenies and 1 charge of keeping a vicious dog. The cases were disposed of as follows: Committed to county jail, 5; sentences suspended, 3; discharged, 2; change of venue, 1. During the month 26 lodgers were accommodated.

West Duluth Brigs.
The annual meeting of the St. Louis county W. C. T. U. will be held at West Duluth on Feb. 16.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher on the Question of Supremacy.

We have seen and heard this question often discussed. Some say that "as the wife is all the care and responsibility in managing the household she should be the ruling power." Others claim that "as the husband is usually the breadwinner and earns what his wife spends for the family he should have the deciding voice in all matters of importance—he should govern."

Government. We dislike the use of that word. It should never be seen in world or act—never enter the heart between man and wife. No woman can be as happy as God intended marriage should make her if her husband's love is chiefly manifested by his disposition to govern. Few women, however loving and self-sacrificing, if endowed with good sense and judgment, ever yield their own premeditated ideas and theories to their husband's judgment and theories. A woman who does so is not a wife, but a slave.

But in order that the household shall not become divided against itself let there be frequent meetings for consultation and advice, and where is brought the intuition which is part of the woman's nature to assist the sound common sense which she brings to the man.

But a loving wife finds it no cross to allow her husband to shape her life as will best meet his tastes and wishes, provided always that he does not lead her down her own conscientious conviction of duty. She should always bear in mind that although she is his wife she is none the less a responsible being; that she, and not her husband, is the one to make or mar the household.

The best and purest elements of a woman's character can never be so thoroughly developed as by the help of her husband. Giving this with mainly loving courtesy, he will find a rich reward in such joy and comfort as only a happy woman's thoughtful care can bring.

But if a husband determines that his will shall be the controlling motive for their daily life and conduct, God be merciful to a home thus governed! This course he does not call governing by his will, but by his "righteousness," and he is not a man, but a tyrant.

That way of defining his actions sounds better. Nevertheless those four letters—W-I-L-L—better express his real meaning. A spirit of compromise should govern the home. A determination in each to have his or her own way, even though it results in a quiet manner, will inevitably result in peace. In all matters of right and justice let the principles of each be founded on a rock. In all matters of compromise let the principles of each be founded on a rock.

It is just this assumption of rule, or dominant power, that rob so many homes of the perfection that should be theirs. It is a quiet manner, will inevitably result in peace. In all matters of right and justice let the principles of each be founded on a rock. In all matters of compromise let the principles of each be founded on a rock.

AHEAD OF THE GAME.

How an Easy Conscience Girl Saved Her Luck.

"It was just this way," said the girl with the red gloves. "Jim and I came over to the house that night, and then Maud dropped in, and so did Charley and Will. We began to play cards, and after awhile at whist and euchre we just naturally drifted into poker."

"Jim was banker. We didn't start with a big game—penny ante and 10 cent limit, I think it was. We played along and played along, and Maud and Charley were getting all the money. I don't know how it was, but I couldn't get anything higher than a pair of sixes, if I was to die for it. I had a little money with me, and I sat there and anted the greater part of it away without getting more than one or two small pots."

"Pretty soon somebody suggested that we raise the limit, and it was put at a quarter, with a 5 cent ante. Jim began to win, and I sat there and saw the money I intended to get that new cape with go into the center of the table and none of it come back. This sort of thing went along until I got sick and disgusted, and I supposed that we make the limit 50 cents."

"Why-ee-e!" broke in the other girl. "That was gambling."

"Gambling?" said the girl with the red gloves. "I should think it was. But as I was saying, my luck kept getting poorer and poorer until it came my deal one hand, and I found that I had drawn in a six, seven, eight and nine of diamonds, with another seven of clubs. I threw away the black seven, and made up my mind to draw for a straight or a flush. The people threw the cards they discarded right in front of me, and it so happened that a lot of them got on top of the pack. Of course I had to take them off so that I could deal cards to those who were going to play, and as I did so I saw that the first card on the pack was the ten of diamonds."

The Weather.
 U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN., Feb. 2.—The barometer is highest over the middle Atlantic states. It was lowest north of Lake Superior.

The reports this morning show mild weather
 and a considerably small range in temperature from the lake regions and Ohio valley westward and northward to the Rocky mountains. Including Canadian stations, 6 degrees above zero at Huron, S. D., and 10 degrees above zero at Fort Smith, Ark., being the extreme.
 At 7 a. m. light snow was reported from the northern plateau region, scattered snow in the Red River valley and light rains in the middle Mississippi valley; elsewhere the weather was fair.

Duluth temperature at 7 a. m. today,
 14 degrees above zero; maximum 17 degrees
 (occurring at 8 a. m. yesterday).

Duluth, Feb. 2.—Local forecast until 8 p. m.
 tomorrow: Fair; warmer this evening; probably colder Saturday evening, with increasing
 cloudiness; west to north winds.

The Pioneer Fuel company sells the best grades of coal, and from the low prices now in effect
 give liberal discounts for cash and make prompt deliveries. Office, 220 West Superior street.
 JAMES KENNELLY,
 Local Foremost Officer.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Forecast till 5 p. m.
 tomorrow: Fair; warmer this evening; probably colder Saturday evening, with increasing
 cloudiness; west to north winds.

Has Made No Pledges.
 If anything were wanting to show the desperate straits to which the opponents of Capt. Lewis are driven in their vain endeavor to secure support for the Demo-Pop candidate, it is supplied by the budget of falsehoods that are being retailed about the pledges they say he has made. The fact is that Capt. Lewis has made no pledges to any man or set of men. He will be elected next Tuesday by a very large majority and he will assume the duties of mayor without having made a single pledge, save his declaration to give the city the best administration that he knows how.

Capt. Lewis is not a politician and therefore he knows nothing of the tricks
 and artifices of the ordinary political candidate. Had he been a politician, he would probably have made some pledges that would have tied his hands to some extent when he took his seat in the mayor's office. Happily he is free from all such entanglements. He has steadfastly and resolutely declined to place himself in a position whereby his actions
 as mayor would be controlled by any man or interest. This is one reason why the people are so generally in favor of his election. They know that he, and he alone, will be mayor, and they have full confidence in his ability, good judgment
 and honesty to give the city an administration that will advance its interests.

The Figures Misleading.
 The Railway Age of this week attacks
 the recently published report of the interstate commerce commission for the year ending June 30, 1903, which has been very widely quoted in the daily press of the country, on the grounds that it is "disingenuous" and likely to grossly mislead the public as to the existing condition of railway finances. The report in question takes a generally cheerful view of the situation, and points out that, while net earnings for the year under consideration fell off about $3 per mile of line, they were still enough to pay 35 per cent on the capitalization of the companies. The Railway Age says:
 "Why we say that this summary is disingenuous is because, in the first place,
 no distinction is made between railways
 in different parts of the country, and no hint is given that these 'averages' are not indifferently applicable to all sections. As a matter of fact the report shows that in four out of ten of the territorial groups of states the roads showed an actual deficit, instead of their 35 per cent 'average' net earnings; and in all the territory west of the line drawn from Chicago through St. Louis to New Orleans there was a universal falling off in net earnings; while for the roads lying east of Chicago there was a general increase. In the second place the abstract is disingenuous (and the report itself no less so) because the whole tone of it gives the reader to understand that any assertion that the railways of the country are not as a whole prosperous is unjustifiable."

The figures given in the report are now seven months old. The period which they cover was, for ten months of its course at least, a time of general activity. That period embraced all the time during which the preparations were being made for the World's fair and two months of the time during which the fair was actually open. During that period there should not, if the railways had been receiving reasonable rates in proportion to their expenses, have been any sort of decrease in net earnings. All external conditions were favorable to them, and in spite of this there was a falling off of $3 a mile in net earnings—or $540,000
 for 180,000 miles of the line—which had all to be borne by considerably less than one-half of the mileage of the country.

Now it was the result during those months of activity and heavy travel (if when business was large rates were not sufficient to keep net earnings up even to the level of the year before) it was quite certain, the Railway Age contends, that, when business fell off and the same conditions of rates were maintained,

 there could be no other result but that
 which has come—widespread disaster.
 This is what the report should have pointed out. Instead of glossing over the decrease and making light of it, it should have insisted that with such a decrease in times of prosperity there must necessarily have followed ruin and tribulation in the times of depression which succeeded. That such a report, assuming a general tone of cheerfulness,
 should appear at this time is deplorable.
 There is nothing in it to put the public
 on its guard against a gross misunderstanding of the situation; but there is everything in it to invite such a misunderstanding.

Washington's Birthday.
 The American Institute of Civics is a national institution devoted to the promotion of good government through good citizenship. In accordance with its annual custom it seeks to secure the widest possible observance of patriotic holidays, with addresses and exercises
 promotive of its objects.

The Herald takes pleasure in presenting the institution's plans for the observance of Washington's birthday. As the subject for addresses on the 162nd anniversary of the day, it suggests the following words from Washington's farewell
 address: "Virtue or morality * * * a necessary spring of popular government." It is proposed that the children of the public schools be assembled (preferably at about 10 a. m., so as to interfere as little as possible with holiday plans) in large audience rooms, where brief addresses
 shall be delivered by popular speakers,
 with suitable recitations by the children,
 patriotic music, and the salutation of the flag in accordance with the manual provided by Col. George T. Balch, of the New York city board of education.

Presidents of colleges and academies
 are asked to interest students in a special observance of the day, and pastors of churches are urged to set apart Sunday evening, Feb. 18 or 25 for a popular patriotic service calculated to awaken
 among church attendants, young and old,
 a deeper sense of the obligations resting on citizens who profess to be guided by the exalted moral teachings of the Man of Nazareth.

The institution solicits information as to the observance of the day, and will award a suitable prize for the public school program which is indicated by accompanying reports of meetings, is deemed best calculated to effectively promote good citizenship. Programs, accompanied by reports of meetings,
 may be sent to Henry Randall Waite,
 president of the institution, 38 Park Row,
 New York. The manual for the salutation of the flag will be at once sent to any teacher upon receipt of 5 cents in stamps, the cost of printing and mailing. Dr. Ridpath, the historian, speaks of the cause represented by the Institute of Civics as "one of the worth-est for the support of which men have ever put themselves side by side;" and Dr. John Le Conte expresses the conviction that "the time has come when an institution like this is absolutely necessary." Those who share in the conviction that the way to good government is through good citizenship, will be interested in reports as to the objects and plans of this institution which can be obtained by writing to its president.

The Mankato Free Press says: "The Duluth Herald says it had the same thing to do over again it would support Maj. Baldwin for congressman." This version of what The Herald said is liable to misconception. What The Herald said, in reply to the St. Cloud Journal Press, was that if the same candidates were in the field now, it would likely support Maj. Baldwin. With a different Republican candidate, The Herald's course might also be changed.

Bourke Cockran has, during the present session of congress, been making secure his title to the rank of one of America's greatest orators. Here is a specimen passage from his eloquent speech against the income tax, in which he referred to the French revolution: "Liberty, bound for ages, struggled to its feet, lighted the castles of its oppressors with the torch it had kindled to guide its own steps, until, staggering and blinded
 by the very light it had created, it fell dying into the hands of Bonaparte."

The Boston Advertiser, which supported Grover Cleveland for president, says: "Politically, the Democratic party
 will be wrecked, as it was by the war,
 should it fail to legislate in the direction of lower duties on imports, and it will have mighty little prosperity henceforth in the Eastern and Middle states if it connects lower duties with income-tax exactions." The Wilson tariff bill, as passed by the house, has the income-tax provisions attached to it.

Cecil Rhodes, premier of Cape Colony, in Africa, has a fortune estimated at from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000. It was all made in the diamond mines of that country. It is said he has the face of a Caesar, the ambition of a Loyola and the wealth of a Cæsar.

President Hill, of the Great Northern road, was in Washington on Wednesday and called upon the secretary of war in behalf of Duluth's effort to secure the appointment of a commission of engineers to report on the deepening of the harbor. Mr. Hill is naturally very much interested in this movement, as Duluth will be the Western terminus of his passenger steamship line.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin said
 a few days ago: "The president of one of the largest national banks in this city is quoted as saying that the time when the great pile of idle money will seek legitimate channels is not far off; that the turn has been made, and that confidence
 will increase its pace as we move farther into the new year." May the prophecy be fulfilled.

The West Duluth Sun objects to Capt.
 Lewis because he is not an orator. The captain does not claim to be an eloquent talker, and neither is he an oily-tongued demagogue—only a plain, straightforward business man, who will give the city a clean, honest and economical administration.

Mr. Jenswold is meeting with a rather chilly reception at the West End. Many of his countrymen live there and their experience with him in the past is not calculated to make them very enthusiastic in furthering his political ambition.

The National League for the Protection of American Institutions is making progress in its work of resisting sectarian appropriations by the national government for Indian education. It is a practice that should be abolished.

The sudden spasm of morality that struck Hibbing must have sent a shock of surprise through the rest of the Mesaba range.

John Jenswold claims to be the "friend of the workingman." It has been a rather expensive friendship—for the workingmen.

The St. Paul Globe refers to Professor Towsley, World's fair commissioner, of Minneapolis, as "Dr. Lansley." Such is finance.

A Strange Oversight.
 Cincinnati Tribune: The receiver of the Chicago Guarantee Investment company reports liabilities of $55,000,000 and assets $440. The only odd thing is how they happened to miss that $440.

A Correct Solution.
 Memphis Commercial. Mayor Hopp-
 kins, of Chicago, declares laconically:
 "No work, no money." He is right. This method there is much light thrown on the "problem of the unemployed."

Every One Should Aid.
 Philadelphia Railway Record: High tariff or low tariff, we believe that business in this country has passed ebbed
 for this decade at least, and a steady improvement may be looked for. Let us all do what we can to aid the improvement.

Deep Enough Water.
 Minneapolis Journal. Duluth wants an appropriation for deep water. Duluth ought to back Congressman Baldwin
 in his fight for free iron ore and it can soon get into deep enough water.

Well, It Has Passed.
 New York Sun, Dem.: The Wilson
 bill is a measure which there is no vestige of Democratic principle. From top to bottom it betrays the Democracy and makes it despicable in the eyes of the people. So far as the treasury of a single branch of congress and of a Democratic administration can bring the Democratic party into disgrace, that result will be accomplished if that atrocious bill is passed on Thursday.

Low Down or High Up?
 Grand Rapids Magnet: The iron ore
 question may not meet with the approval of the constituents of Duluth, it was a low down piece of business to parade
 him around in front.

The Spirits Work.
 Minneapolis Times: The ghost of the Duluth chamber of commerce has risen
 just as the ghost of the Duval club goes down.

No Reason to Fear.
 Minneapolis Tribune: Dismiss your fears, ye people who are afraid that the Jackson-Corbett bill will be fought under the auspices of a Superior syndicate and the vicinity of that town. Duluth will get it that Superior never gets so gaudy an advertisement and Superior will look after Duluth's vaulting ambition in the same direction.

The Explanation.
 Chicago Times, Dem: Col. Bill
 Brown, Democrat, beaten by Lemuel Eli Quigg, Republican, in the Fourteenth congressional district of New York Tuesday, was known as a close friend of Grover Cleveland. Further explanation is needless.

Auditor La Vaque's Boom.
 West Duluth Sun: George N. La Vaque, auditor of St. Louis county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for state auditor, Duluth, no doubt, will stand by him for the nomination.

St. Paul News: The Duluth Herald
 brings out another candidate for state auditor, George N. La Vaque, the present auditor of St. Louis county. The Herald refers to the fact that St. Louis county never had a state office, no Republican from that county having ever received a nomination. This, that paper thinks, should enhance Mr. La Vaque's prospects of becoming the Republican nominee for state auditor.

EXTRACTED GINGER. The Speed Root Freely Used to Adulterate the Unseasoned Spice.

At a meeting of public analysts in England the subject of spent ginger was discussed. It was declared that ginger which had been exhausted or extracted by mineral water manufacturers finds a ready market as an adulterant of genuine ground
 ginger, and that the detection of such ad-teration is infrequent, although dealers in honest spices have long ground under the unfair competition to which such ad-teration subjects them. The word ad-teration is used advisedly, because the case is precisely analogous to the admixture of skimmed milk with whole milk.
 One of the analysts present said that in the case of ginger which was made from raisin wine, etc., the ginger was bought in the condition of root, roughly crushed and then "steeped," as it was termed in the trade, for a long time in a liquor containing 25 per cent of the proof spirit.

Only the more delicate flavored matter
 was abstracted by that means, and the extracted, or "spent," ginger was then sold as genuine. Reference was made to the fact that a certain proportion of it found its way to the lower classes of ginger bread makers. It had a distinct value as a flavoring material. Finally the whole of the volatile oil had been extracted, but all the pungent resinous matters were left behind.
 In support of the view that the root was soluble in water it might also be stated that considerable ginger comes into the market which has been deprived of a small percentage only of its flavor by boiling with water. Subsequent drying leaves this product very much in the condition of an inferior ginger, but it is not so low as "spent ginger" the fraud is obvious. Another analyst said he knew of an actual case where ginger, which had been thoroughly extracted with strong spirit
 and which was merely a mass of cellulose
 fiber and starchy matter, with no resin left and practically tasteless, was used for adulterating purposes to obtain certain knowledge.—Merchants' Review.

Gold In Solution In The Ocean.
 In a paper on the subject of gold in the waters of the ocean by Pickard, the well known engineer, attention is called to the fact that at an approximate estimate by his calculation an account must be made of local conditions, such as the temperature of the water, etc. According to results obtained from the careful soundings made by the Challenger and similar scientific expeditions, it has been computed that the ocean has an average depth of 3,690 meters, and that it contains 400,000,000 cubic miles of water, equivalent to 1,387,020,272,000 million tons, which upon the basis of five milligram-mes of gold per cubic meter, would represent 6,935,101,360,000 tons of gold. In striking contrast to these figures is the statement made by Southern, Leech and others that the gold content of the ocean during the last four centuries—1493-1892—has amounted to but 5,020 tons, while the present output is estimated at about 300 tons per annum.
 The amount of free iodine present
 in the ocean is very minute, but a large proportion of that element occurs combined as an iodate of calcium. Thus from the results of his various series of experiments Southern found that a cubic mile of sea water contains about 17,000 tons of iodate of calcium, or 11,073 tons of iodine. The iodine, he maintains,
 is in an insoluble chemical form that the gold in sea water is kept in solution as an iodide. The amount of free iodine present

Referee Greene Decides for the Plaintiff in Emma Kurtz vs. St. Paul & Duluth Railroad et al.

Railroads Are Declared to Have no Right-of-Way Between the Depots in West Duluth.

Value of the Land Involved is About Sixty Thousand Dollars—Emma Kurtz Gets One-Third.

A decision has been given by Referee H. F. Greene in the case of Emma Kurtz vs. St. Paul & Duluth and Northern Pacific railroads and West Duluth Land company in favor of the plaintiff. This is an old action having been dragging along three or four years. It is a suit brought to recover the right-of-way between the West End and West Duluth depots ten acres. The two-thirds of the property claimed by the plaintiff is valued at $60,000.

When the case was first tried in the district court the railroads claimed the right-of-way under a guardian's deed but this title proved to be bad and the companies abandoned this defense and denied that the plaintiff was the owner of the property alleging that the title was in Hiram Hayes under a guardian's deed given later than the one held by the companies. The title was held both by the district and supreme courts to be one of Hiram Hayes and the action was therefore defeated.

On the second trial Hiram Hayes was made a party to the suit. He testified that, although his deed from the guardian covered the right-of-way, he had never bought it at the guardian's sale and disclaimed any interest whatever in it. The railroad company's title was defeated in the first action and Referee Greene has decided in favor of the plaintiff.

Emma Kurtz and the West Duluth Land company reap equal benefit, each being entitled to one-third of the property.

TALES OF THE TOWN.

Weather Observer Kenealy Says the Public Is Not Posted on Weather Charts.

"It is surprising, the amount of ignorance among the people at large concerning the work of the weather department," said James Kenealy, who has charge of the Duluth department. "The collection of the weather reports, the use of the cipher method of transmitting these reports and the methods of obtaining them are exceedingly interesting, and not much is generally known about the subject. More confidence is now put by all classes in the service of the department than existed in the days when some people seemed to think that the department made the weather to order or at least rendered its reports and forecasts after the style of the old almanac."

"One interesting thing is the map or chart which is daily posted in conspicuous places in the business part of the city. This chart is merely a printed record of the state of the weather at the time of general observation, 8 a. m. or 8 p. m. The observations, as recorded, show the readings of the barometer and thermometer, direction and velocity of the wind, state of the sky and amount of rain or snowfall. By bearing in mind a few of these data, a little practice will enable one to foresee coming changes by a mere glance at the map. These charts are posted for the convenience of the public and it is coming to recognize their value."

Judge Page Morris has a new name for Alderman Cox of the Seventh ward. "There's my friend Cox," he said, "you all know what a good, staunch, upright Republican he is. I call him Sunset Cox, not because of any particular resemblance which he bears to the famous statesman of that name, but because he represents the western portion of the city in the common council, because he comes from the West End, the sunset portion of the city."

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer $10 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CROSBY & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

The best medical authorities say the proper way to treat catarrh is to take a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Itasca County Papers in a Squabble Over the Delinquent Tax List.

Messrs. Graffam & Orr, publishers of the Iron and Lumber Review, through their attorneys, Messrs. True & Neal, appeared before Court Commissioner Bowman at La Prairie, last Saturday, and obtained an injunction against County Auditor McIntosh, of Itasca county forbidding him giving the delinquent tax list to the La Prairie News for publication, and demanding that the same be turned over to the Review. The case will be heard here tomorrow before one of the judges.

The claim set up by the publishers is that the work was awarded them by the commissioners. It is said that the auditor has taken this action once or twice before and caused two publications to be declared invalid. Another allegation which it is said Messrs. Graffam & Orr will make is that the La Prairie News is not a legal paper under the law, it not having a bona-fide circulation of more than 150, whereas the law requires 250.

The Musical Society Concert.
A large audience comfortably filled the assembly hall of the Central High school last evening. The concert given by the High School Musical society was a success in every way. The choruses were admirable and gave evidence of excellent training. The Adelphe and Bohemian quartet numbers were finely rendered. Solos were given by H. G. Gushart, Miss Farrell and Miss Cullyford and all were highly appreciated. An extravaganza "Princess Snow White" closed the entertainment. It was given by the boys of St. Paul's choir assisted by the Misses Eva and was a pretty and clever production.

Will Resume Work.
The Lalleu Wagon works at South Superior is to start up next Wednesday according to one of the officials. Contracts were made some time ago for a large number of wagons and the orders from these sources have row come in in sufficiently large numbers to warrant starting the factory. At the start about 100 men will be employed working eight hours per day. This force will be increased as soon as the trade warrants.

The Firemen's Ball.
The ball of the Firemen's Relief society at the St. Louis hotel last evening was attended by a large number and a neat sum will doubtless be turned over to the Ladies' Relief society. The grand march was led by Chief Jackson and Miss McIlhargay at 9 o'clock and from then on the dance continued until well into morning. Mayor d'Autremont and Chief Horgan were among the guests as well as the board of fire commissioners. Supper was served by the hotel.

A RUSH FOR LAND.

The Release of Several Thousand Acres Caused a Lively Scramble.

The secretary of the interior has approved List No. 5 of selections of the state of Minnesota to satisfy its grant for university purposes made in 1870. The original grant included 72 sections, or 46,080 acres. In the four lists hitherto approved it has patented 45,382 acres, leaving a balance of only 397 acres. The state had, however, filed on a much larger quantity of land and was holding it against settlers to make good this deficiency. All the selected lands were in township 63, range 16, and 61-14, the former being just across Vermilion lake from Tower. Last fall Governor Nelson was notified that the state must complete its selection and release the balance. The governor has therefore selected the land on section 23, and in balance, amounting to some thousands of acres, will thus be thrown open to entry by the settlers, who have already occupied most of it.

As a result of this relinquishment, there was quite a little rush at the local United States land office this morning. Numerous applications in the past had been filed and some of these made this morning were simply renewals. Several, however, were new filings. There were about fifteen different sections filed upon.

TAKEN BY THE REBELS

The Armed Transport Itapu, With Admiral Goncalves Aboard Was Captured by the Brazilian Insurgents.

Bahia to be Blocked by the Republica, and Insurgents Preparing to Enter San Pablo.

If They Succeed They Will Have All the Brazil Territory South of Rio Janeiro.

New York, Feb. 3.—The Herald's Montevideo dispatch says: The armed transport Itapu, which left Montevideo recently with Admiral Goncalves aboard, has been captured by the rebel ship Republica. The Bahia, Goncalves had been ordered to join Peixoto's squadron and was on its way to Rio de Janeiro when the Republica ran him down and made the capture. The insurgents now announced that the Republica will blockade Bahia. Mello is now organizing a provisional government in the state of Parana. The insurgents are preparing to enter San Pablo. If they succeed in this they will have practical possession of all Brazilian territory south of Rio Janeiro. They will then be prepared to march on the capital by land. The Herald correspondent in Rio Janeiro, writing under date of Jan. 25, says that up to that time the insurgents had accomplished but little beyond holding Monacque Islands and Santa Ana beach. The fleet had gained nothing. Both sides appeared to waste shots, but actual observation made by the correspondent on board the Aquidaban during the first demonstrates that the ship succeeded in striking more frequently than the shots from the government forts.

During the interchange of shots on Jan. 23 most of the shells from the forts fell short, but a few struck the hull of the Aquidaban. The explosion on the armor plates splintered like bullets striking a target. The men on board the Aquidaban displayed great coolness. They dodged the flying shells by getting behind the turrets. All of the men on board were in good spirits. Admiral Gama has news of the capture of Canab by the insurgent forces under Gumsind. Several hundred men and nine field guns and much ammunition.

Mello still held Panagagua. He had the transports Iria, Urubis and Esperanca. The insurgent fleet consisted of a fleet. A shell from the forts at Armaco struck the Tamandere and cut a hole in her smokestack. The shell burst into flames and the ship was abandoned. The cruiser is in good condition, except for damage to the smokestack. The Aquidaban is in good condition, except for a small hole in her side. The only trouble with her is a break in the circulation pump.

The Herald correspondent had an interview with Capt. Fanson aboard the Aquidaban. He said that he saw little hope of an armistice, as the revolutionists could accept nothing short of the retirement of President Peixoto, the complete abolition of military rule and the delivery of the government to the hands of a civil junta to administer affairs pending the election.

The restoration of the constitutional status and the organization of a responsible parliamentary government with a civilian as first president were also indispensable conditions for armistice. They have no hope of affecting a compromise with the president, through the intervention of Admiral Benham, or otherwise, as has been suggested. Peixoto's friends, Capt. Fanson said, will kill him before they would allow him to desert them by resigning in favor of any civilian. The rebels generally mistrust Morales, he said, owing to the impartial position he is trying to maintain. They also claim that Morales really has no legal status as president officer of the senate, as that body elects a new president at each session.

GEORGE W. CHILDS DEAD.
The Noted Publisher and Philanthropist Has Breathed His Last.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—George W. Childs, proprietor of the Public Ledger, died this morning at 3:01 o'clock at his residence at Twenty-second and Walnut streets, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained by him Jan. 18. Mr. Childs was a type of American manhood at its very best. He was born in Baltimore, May 12, 1828. He attended private schools there until he was 14 years old, when he went to Philadelphia and became a clerk in a book store. From this humble beginning he rose to be one of the richest men in the country.

Serious Accident.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 3.—A runaway horse attached to a sleigh knocked down and seriously injured seven people on Tremont street near Winter yesterday afternoon. The injured are: Mrs. Wallace, D. Dexter, Mrs. Mary Cannon, Mrs. C. A. Lancaster, Miss Gale W. Stevens, Miss A. L. Swift, Miss Josephine Gould and Miss A. E. Mitchell. Some of them have internal injuries that may prove serious.

Betrayed by Accomplices.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—Victor H. Echori was arrested yesterday on a charge of tools of his had held up a messenger of the Southwestern bank near the Pennsylvania Salt company's works and robbed him of a decoy package, supposed by the robbers to contain $15,000. Echori who had been working on the plot for a month was betrayed by his accomplices and delivered into the hands of the police.

Minnesota Pensions.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The following pensions were granted today: Timothy O'leary, Lakeville, Minn.; Warren Granger, Jr., St. Paul.

HERE'S A HOT ROAST.

Editor Dana Writes With Virioli on the Wilson Tariff Bill.

New York, Feb. 3.—The Sun says editorially: "The Democratic representatives from New York who stood up in the house against the communistic sentiment of the Populist-Socialist majority were rewarded for their fidelity to Democratic principle by the jeers of that mob of Democratic traitors. Also a socialist and anarchist newspaper has a story that when a member referred to the Sun as a Democratic paper, there were groans and jeers from the communistic gang."

"That is the way in which the Sun wants to have its name received in the camp of the enemies of American institutions and the traitors to Democratic principles. Such a crowd have good reason to hate it, for it bites them and its implacable foe. So, too, the jeers of communists were a tribute of honor to the consistent Democratic representatives from New York. They were only the expression of important rage by perfidious and recreant Democrats against Democrats loyal to principle and faithful to the equality of American citizenship before the law."

"No true Democrat and no true American would have received the applause of that communistic gang. Its favor was an insult, and its reprobatation was an honorable distinction. Men who were elected to a legislative office on a platform which denounces class legislation and commits them to opposition to it as an essential principle of Democracy, who then proceed to enact class legislation in its most vicious and flagrant forms, are creatures whose disfavor alone is tolerable by honest and honorable men. Men who are sent to Congress to defend the principles of Democracy and by their votes in Congress surrender the Democracy to populism and communism, are political traitors from whose company every true and genuine Democrat wishes to be separated, and the more they take pains to distinguish them from them by their enmity, the greater is his satisfaction and the more enviable his distinction."

"The Wilson bill is not a Democratic measure. From top to bottom it outrages Democratic convictions and betrays the Democratic pledge. To support it is to forfeit the title to the name of Democrat. To spurn it is to deserve that glorious title. The inequality of its discrimination and class taxation is communistic, not Democratic. It is a scheme of legislation against which the whole history of the Democratic party is arrayed. It is against every principle of the Democratic party makes war. It flouts the American constitution and subverts the political principles of the Democratic party. It is a betrayal and in its whole structure. There is not a Democratic stone in the monstrous edifice."

For Valliant's Reprieve
PARIS, Feb. 3.—The Journal des Debats says that M. Cassimer-Perrier, prime minister, and M. Dupuy, president of the chamber of deputies, support the application for a reprieve for Valliant, a member of the cabinet, who was sentenced to death by a court-martial on Jan. 9, for throwing a bomb in the chamber of deputies.

Found Dead in Bed.
LIMA, O., Feb. 3.—Thursday night John Noonan and S. C. Douglass retired at the Windsor hotel, and in putting out the gas the plug came loose and the gas turned too far, allowing the gas to escape. The men went to sleep and they were found dead in bed yesterday.

C. T. A. Union of America.
ST. PAUL, Feb. 3.—The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of America, is to meet in St. Paul next August. Archbishop Ireland is giving the matter his personal attention and has appointed a large committee of representatives, members of the union, with A. W. Outridge as chairman, to take charge of the arrangements.

Captured a Desperado.
DEARBORN, D., Feb. 3.—Dave Deaborn, the rustler, escaped from the Minnesota jail Thursday night at 11 o'clock. He effected his escape by knocking Jailer Leonard down with a piece of stove wood. Two cowboys, heavily armed, mounted their bronchos and started in his tracks with lanterns. They succeeded in capturing him. They tracked him thirty-five miles—a great feat.

A Road to Rainy Lake.
CROOKSTON, Minn., Feb. 3.—The latest scheme on the docket here is the project of a wagon road from this point through Northern Minnesota to the Rainy Lake gold country and to Tower. It is suggested that the United States should assist in this undertaking by an appropriation of $50,000.

A Banker Arrested.
ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 3.—J. C. Yetzer, president and owner of about 50 per cent of the defunct Cass County bank, was arrested yesterday for fraudulent banking on information sworn out by W. C. Carter. He waived examination and was placed under $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Two Children Perished.
MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 3.—The residence of John Scanlan on Atlantic avenue burned yesterday and his two little children perished in the flames. Mrs. Scanlan was terror-stricken in trying to rescue the little ones.

The Strikers Won.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 3.—The Pioneer Pottery company, of Wellsville, O., yesterday acceded to the demands of the striking potters and work will resume. The old wages immediately. One hundred and fifty men are employed.

At the Point of Death.
QUERRETO, Mex., Feb. 3.—Romero Rubio, secretary of state in the Mexican cabinet and father-in-law to President Diaz, is lying almost at the point of death.

AWED BY THE SHERIFF

A Drunken Mob of Striking Miners in West Virginia Was Given a Hot Reception.

They Tried to Make Other Miners Quit Work But the Sheriff Met Their Fire.

Six Miners Closed in the Cripple Creek Gold Region But the Strike Nearly Ended.

CHARLESTON, Kanawha county, W. Va., Feb. 3.—Sheriff Silman received a telephone dispatch yesterday to come with deputies immediately to Acme, as the Montgomery miners were marching down on Stevens' mines to make Stevens quit work. The sheriff with a posse went up to Acme at 7 p. m. and found Stevens men out ready to give the approaching mob a hot reception. They dispersed when the sheriff came.

At 10 o'clock a drunken mob of nearly 300 strikers came up crying "put out the lights." John Foster, standing in his own door with a lantern, was fired on by twelve men and shot through the groin. He may die. The sheriff's party fired fifty shots in the air. Some of the miners ran, the rest came on shooting wildly. The sheriff told them not to cross the dead line or he would fire into them. Two miners were shot, one in the arm and one in the chin as it is supposed by their own men.

The sheriff's determined stand awed the mob, and hearing that Foster was expected to die, they sent a committee to Stevens to say that if he would furnish an engine and cars they would go back. This was done. The mob departed and the sheriff came back today. No further trouble is anticipated.

THE CRIPPLE CREEK STRIKE.

Six Miners Are Closed Down but the Strike Will Soon End.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—A special to a morning paper from Colorado Springs, Colo., says: The situation at Cripple Creek gold mines remains practically unchanged. The Gold Dollar shut down yesterday. The Pharmacists, Isabella, Zenobia, Blue Bird and Summit mines are idle, but all the rest are at work. The Victor manager was visited by 200 strikers and requested to close, but he refused and that mine is still working. A mass meeting is called for next Sunday. The strike may then be declared off. President Moffat of the V. M. W. has given the paying mines in the camp, says he has no concessions to make to the strikers. At Leadville, in wet mines, the miners work nine hours a day at $2.50. The mines at Cripple Creek are dry and shutting down will not hurt them.

It is generally believed that the strike is a failure. Thus far only nine mines are working nine hours daily while twenty-seven are working eight hours.

HE DIED AMID SQUALOR.

Horrible Death of a Miser in a New York Hamlet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Frederick C. Peck, although wealthy and of good family, met a horrible death amid squalor and misery at Basking Ridge, a hamlet lying ten miles west of Plainfield, N. J., early yesterday morning. Peck lived the wretched life of a solitary miser for several years, although he was rich and his family likewise.

For several days this week he had been ill with sore throat and while refusing medical attendance, evidently thought his own condition dangerous. He gave the keys of his home to John Fenimore, a neighbor, instructing him to keep his eyes open for any sudden turn in his condition. When Fenimore entered Peck's house yesterday morning he was horrified to find the owner stretched dead upon the floor, while on every hand were evidences of a fierce struggle against fire. Indications go to prove the man was lying reading in bed with a lamp near by. His lamp probably exploded and ignited the bed linen and the furniture. Peck undoubtedly had a severe struggle alone and unaided against the spread of the flames and finally succeeded in putting out the fire. Having done this he evidently fell exhausted to the floor and died. His body was badly burned in various places.

Some eight years ago Peck's father died and left the young man $50,000. He had always lived a hermit life and refused to make friends with anyone.

Highwaymen Break Jail.
VIRGINIA, Ill., Feb. 3.—Jailer Alexander Robison, of the county jail, went into the corridor surrounding the cells with the evening meal last night, and as he stepped inside the grated doors he was overpowered by three desperate characters, James Bennett and John Garret, charged with highway robbery at Beardstown, and Joseph Brown, a forger. All three made their escape.

Says It Is a Lottery.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Old Colony Security company, a benefit company, which is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia and has its principal office at Wheeling, is taking steps to compel Postmaster Sherwood, of this city, to send its circulars through the United States mails. Mr. Sherwood contends that the company is in the nature of a lottery, and when a letter was presented at the city office on Jan. 17 last he refused to admit it.

Lights for the Day.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—[Special to The Herald.]—In the sundry civil appropriation bill made public today an estimate of $20,000 is made for lighting Superior and St. Louis rivers and bays at the head of Lake Superior.

BUSINESS PICKING UP.

The Factories at Detroit Are Increasing Their Forces.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 3.—Business with the local factories is beginning to pick up. The Farrand-Votey Organ company has increased its force to 150 men and will be running with a full complement of hands in a couple of weeks. The Detroit Safe company is working full force night and day. J. E. Bolles & Co. have 90 per cent of their regular force at work; the E. T. Barnum Wire and Iron works are running at half capacity and the Detroit Dry Dock company has put additional men to work and reports that the prospects are decidedly brighter.

THE DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

Debate on the Hawaiian Question Resumed in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The house seems to have settled down to its customary routine and after the reading of yesterday's journal some routine business was transacted. Mr. Money introduced a resolution commending the action of Admiral Benham at Rio. At 12:20 the morning hour expired and Mr. Hitt continued his speech on Hawaii, which was interrupted by adjournment yesterday. Messrs. Rayner and Blair followed.

Interference a Mistake.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Statist, commenting on the action of Rear Admiral Benham at Rio Janeiro, says: "If it is true that Admiral Benham interfered to defeat the monarchists, President Cleveland has made a false step, as such a course would be a resort to the bad old practice of European governments of interfering to uphold a particular regime. Bitter experience taught Europe the mistake of interfering."

Adverse to Dr. Burtisell.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A special cablegram from Rome to the Sun says: I learn on the best authority that the appeal of the Rev. Dr. Burtisell against his removal from the Church of the Epiphany in New York city, which took place under the authority of Archbishop Corrigan some two or three years ago, has just been decided against him by the propaganda.

Challenge to the World.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—John S. Johnson, the cyclist, has issued the following challenge: "I will race any amateur in the world anywhere, any distance up to five miles, the contest to take place next June. I will agree to let my opponents select their own track, but the race must be strictly amateur and for some suitable prize."

Given Until Tuesday.

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 3.—Secretary of State Josiah, State Treasurer Hamblin and Commissioner of the Land Office Berry had a conference with Governor Rich this morning. As a result of this conference the governor has given the above state officials until Tuesday next to decide whether or not they will hand in their resignations.

His Innocence Proved.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 3.—Walter Willard, the young American who was recently arrested and placed in jail in the city of Chihuahua, state of Guerrero, Mexico, on the charge of being a revolutionary, has been released from custody, his innocence being proven before President Diaz.

Tragedy in Boston.

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Walter Johnson, of Gloucester, Mass., this noon fatally shot Miss Carrie Andrews in the Warren building on Park street. He then shot himself in the head, after which he slashed his wrist with a razor, dying in a few minutes.

Five Were Killed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The Herald's Valparaiso special says: A mob of forty men supposed to be Balmacedists, attacked the artillery barracks in Santiago Thursday, but were repelled by the guard after a brief hand to hand encounter. Five of the assailants were killed and one wounded.

A Tory Rumor.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—Tory papers publish a rumor that there is a split in the cabinet on the question of the continuance of the British protectorate over Uganda, in Africa, Mr. Gladstone differing with Lord Roseberry the foreign secretary. The report is incredible.

Won by Johnson.

MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—In the final heat of the 220 yards skating race Davidson, Johnson and J. F. Donohue started. Johnson won, Donohue second. Time, 20 3/5.

WEST DULUTH ITEMS

Company G Gathered Around the Camp Fire Last Evening and Was Entertained With Music and Speeches.

Populists Held a Meeting and Shouted for John Jensen at Scott's Hall Last Evening.

Republicans Will Hold a Scandinavian Meeting Tonight in Sutton's Hall—Other Meetings Tonight.

The members of Company G rallied around the old camp fire last evening. About fifty were present in all. After a lunch of sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee and fruit was served, the soldier's spirit was revived and awakened by old army songs, reminiscences of camp life and the expression of patriotic sentiments. Toasts were drunk to the "Ups and Downs of Company G," "The Future of the Company," "Guard Duty at Towner," "Jasper Hill," etc. The company then adjourned to the pleasure with songs and instrumental selections. Among the guests of honor were Maj. Braaten and ex-Capt. Williamson.

POLITICAL MEETINGS.
Populists Gathered Together and Shouted at Scott's Hall Last Evening.

The Populists held the only political meeting in West Duluth last evening and consequently drew a big audience at Scott's hall. John Jensen spoke first and followed about the same line of argument as in his former speech at this place. He was followed by J. A. Keyes who spoke at some length. E. G. Walander, the Populist candidate for alderman from the Eighth ward, closed the program.

This evening the Republicans will hold a Scandinavian meeting at Sutton's hall on Grand avenue. The speakers will include P. J. Borgstrom, C. A. Johnson, John Clippin and others.

The Democrats will have two meetings, one at Hurley's hall, under Scandinavian auspices, and a French meeting at Johnson's hall, Second avenue and Second street south. John Kuegard, Emil Oland and Ludwig Arctander will speak at the former, and G. R. Leasage, Alfred Jacques and Adam Bede at the latter place.

West Duluth Briefs.
Dr. Forbes will return today from St. Paul, where he went to attend the funeral of Dr. Murphy, in time to supply his pulpit at the Methodist church tomorrow both morning and evening.

Rev. C. H. Remington will hold the usual morning services at the Episcopal church tomorrow morning. He will hold services at Carleton in the evening.

Street Commissioner Haley is superintending the erection of the election booths at the various precincts today.

Born, Feb. 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhner, Third avenue west, a son.

Eight deaths and fourteen births were registered from West Duluth the past month.

The usual services will be held in the Congregational church tomorrow morning. In the evening Mrs. Oland will sing and Miss Hammond, of Duluth, will recite.

The West Duluth string orchestra will furnish music for the military ball on Monday evening.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a social at the residence of Dr. C. Prescott next Wednesday evening to which the public are cordially invited.

Company Formally Organized.
The Lakes, St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Construction company was formally organized yesterday at Superior under the laws of Wisconsin. This is the same company which was organized here about six or eight weeks ago. The organization here was a preliminary one. The company is to construct a canal from Lake St. Clair to Lake Erie. The capital is $250,000.

WHEAT WAS FIRM TODAY.

The Opening Was Weak But the Close Was Steady at an Advance.

A weak and lower opening, a fairly active and advancing wheat market, with a firm and steady close at unchanged prices from yesterday for cash, is higher for wheat to arrive and 1/2 cent advance on May and July, constituted the character of the wheat market today. The receipts for the week amount to 1,000,000 bushels, about 100,000 of which were from the mills, the rest from the elevators and the stock in store. The market is closed firm, as follows:
